

Table of content

1. Introduction.....	11
2. Sources and Literature Review	22
3. GDR International Development Policy Involvement – History and Fundamental Aspects.....	36
3.1 The GDR begins to focus on the Third World.....	36
3.2 Stages of the GDR development policy commitment.....	38
3.3 German-German relations and the GDR’s struggle for recognition	42
3.4 The beginning of practical solidarity	45
3.5 Ideological support of African organisations, parties and states	49
3.6 The Hallstein Doctrine – effects on GDR development policy involvement	54
3.7 Until the bitter end?.....	60
3.8 Euphoria and decrease in the interest in Africa among GDR executive committees	61
3.9 Anti-imperialist solidarity or development co-operation.....	65
3.10 The organisation of development co-operation in the GDR	70
3.11 The GDR Solidarity Committee.....	72
3.12 The financial foundations of GDR “solidarity development co-operation” with African countries	76
3.13 Attempt at a summary of the GDR development policy involvement.....	78
4. The Peace Corps of the East – The FDJ Friendship Brigades.....	88
5. ‘Contract employees’, a part of the GDR's development co-operation	98
5.1 Contract or foreign worker?	98
5.2 Foreigners or socialist friends?	101
5.3 The legal status of foreigners in the GDR.....	110
5.4 Foreign students and their degrees.....	116

6. Military and security co-operation in the name of solidarity?.....	121
6.1 Facts of the co-operation in the military field	130
6.2 The training of African members of the military by the GDR 'Nationale Volksarmee' – a few preliminary research results	138
6.3 The case of the MPLA and FRELIMO	144
7. The ideological foundations of GDR development policy.....	148
7.1 Theory – Research – Reality	148
7.2 Aims of the development policy involvement	161
7.3 Theory and Practice.....	162
8. Development Aid and/or Solidarity with the Liberation Movements in Southern Africa.....	165
8.1 The Case Study of SWAPO	165
8.2 The Case of the ANC	176
9. Selected examples of GDR development policy involvement.....	188
9.1 The Economy – Finances, a look at the results	188
9.2 Cultural implementation (the media, journalism, sports).....	194
9.3 Political-administrative aid	194
9.4 Industrial aid	195
9.5 Agricultural and infrastructural aid.....	197
9.6 Educational aid.....	200
9.7 GDR educational and vocational aid for Africa.....	201
10. New principles of development policy towards the end of the GDR.....	206
10.1 Education	212
10.2 Healthcare	212
10.3 Food Security, rural development, protection of the environment and resources.....	213
10.4 Trade and industry.....	213
10.5 Implementation of development policy measures.....	214

11. What happened to GDR development projects in Africa?	217
12. Conclusion.....	227
13. Appendix	238
13.1 How GDR-history is distorted – An example	238
14. Abstract	255
15. List of Abbreviations.....	257
16. Tables	264
17. Bibliography.....	267
17.1 Archival Sources	267
17.2 Other Primary Sources	269
17.3 Newspapers, Internet and Popular Magazines	273
17.4 Books, Chapters in Books and Articles.....	275
17.5 Conference Proceedings, Theses, Dissertations and Unpublished Papers.....	315
17.6 Press Agency Reports and Television Broadcasts	316