

Contents

In Debate with Kari Palonen: a Journey across Concepts, Politics and Histories	11
Marie-Christine Boilard, Evgeny Roshchin &amp; Claudia Wiesner
Concepts	17
Political Theory of a Different Sort	19
Evgeny Roshchin
An Intellectual Redescription: Revisiting Kari Palonen's Quentin Skinner	25
Martin J. Burke
Conceptual History and Time	31
Bo Stråth
On time. Very briefly.	37
Anna Björk
'Time-Images'	41
Kia Lindroos
Modernity and the In Utramque Partem	47
Pantelis Bassakos
Kari Palonen and Speaking In Utramque Partem	53
Markku Peltonen
Where Never 'All the Argument is on One Side': J.S. Mill's Contribution to the Study of Parliament	57
Nadia Urbinati

Contents

Legal History as Begriffsgeschichte? Martti Koskenniemi	63
The Public Interest is ‘a Work of Art’ Frank Ankersmit	69
Action, Politics, and Human Rights Lena Halldenius	75
Politics, Debating, Rights Hanna-Mari Kivistö	81
Parliaments, Parliamentarism and Kari Palonen Alan Finlayson	87
The Politics of Dissensus and the Concept of Debate Taru Haapala	93
Concepts of Parliamentarism in the EU’s Political System Teija Tiilikainen	99
The Politics of Concepts in European Integration Claudia Wiesner	105
Politics	113
Queerly Critical – Kari Palonen’s Style of Conceptual History Tuija Pulkkinen	115
Journeying to the Political Michael Freedon	121
On the Autonomy of the Political Olivia Guaraldo	127

Weberian-Inspired Defence of Politics Paul-Erik Korvela	133
Kari Palonen – The Sophist Alternative Ere Nokkala	139
From Piazza to Parliament. Reflections on Kari Palonen’s Intellectual Shifts Tuija Parvikko	145
On the Place of Parliamentarism Today Tapani Turkka	151
Democratising Deliberation: Parliamentarism, Deliberative Democracy and Lotteries Anthoula Malkopoulou	157
Studying the Indonesian Parliament Through Its Parliamentary Debates Ratih Adiputri	163
The United Nations General Assembly as a Site of Conceptual Debate Marie-Christine Boilard	169
Examining the Powers of US Congress in Exceptional Situations from the Debate Perspective Anna Kronlund	179
Without Parliament: on Political Language and Conceptual Change when Representation is not Sufficient Jani Marjanen	185
On Academic and Individual Freedom in a Civil Association Suvi Soininen	195

Contents

Insights into Depoliticised Africa Liisa Laakso	201
Passion for Politics – a Student's Point of View Tuula Vaarakallio	207
Histories	211
Gratefully Acknowledging My Intellectual Debts Quentin Skinner	213
Kari Palonen and Me Niilo Kauppi	217
Between the I and the Us: My Uncle Kari Emilia Palonen	221
Beginning a Fifth Decade with Kari Palonen's Oeuvre: Intersections with his Path from Critical Rationalism to Conceptual History and Beyond Pertti Ahonen	227
An Unusual Reading of the GG Javier Fernández Sebastián	233
Kari Palonen: An Inspiring Travel Companion on the Way to Conceptual History and Beyond Pasi Ihalainen	239
Scenes from Railway Travel at the End of the Milošević Regime and the Beginning of Democratization in Serbia Rinna Kullaa	245
Youthful Days Pekka Korhonen	253

Kari as a ‘Parliamentary Academic’ or ‘Academic Parliamentarian’ Onni Pekonen	259
Academic Ideals, Democracy and Sandwiches Sia Spiliopoulou Åkermark	265
Politik als Leben Sarita Friman-Korpela and Hanna Kallio	269
Kari Palonen or the Art of Open-Mindedness Irène Herrmann	275
An Eccentric and Nerdy Genius Jan Ifversen	279
An Anarchist who Turned out to Love Procedures Jussi Kurunmäki	285
Kari Palonen as a Radical Foreigner Kyösti Pekonen	291
Kari Palonen: an Unfinished Portrait José María Rosales	297
Kari Palonen’s Academic Journey: a Very Short History	303
Authors	305
Tabula Gratulatoria	309