

Contents

Abbreviations IX

Introduction 1

Part A. HUMANITARIAN ACTION IN FAMINES BETWEEN THEORY AND PRACTICE

I. The Ethics of Humanitarian Action 6

Ambiguities and Dilemmas of Aid 6 The Act of Giving: Objective and Subjective Obligations 13 Implications for Humanitarian Action 16 Conflicting Obligations in Humanitarian Action 22 Dealing With Moral Dilemmas 25

II. Humanitarian Ethics and Famine 30

Theories of Famine 30 Famine Paradigms and Humanitarian Action 41 Famine and the Dilemma of Aid 47

III. The History of Famine Aid 52

'Famine Fighters' and Pioneers – Famine Relief to Soviet Russia 1921-23 53 Biafra – Founding Myth of 'Rebellious Humanitarianism' 63 Cambodia 1979-80: Competition and Dispute 71 Famine Aid and Population Transfer: Ethiopia 1984-85 78

Part B. FAMINE AID IN NORTH KOREA

IV. The North Korean Famine: Causes and Scale 94

Industrial Collapse and Food Availability Decline 94 Entitlement Failure and Totalitarianism 103 The Benefits Paradigm: Food and Political Loyalty 106 The Scale of the Famine 112

V. The Political Environment of Aid 122

The Recipient Side: Famine, Aid and Juche 122 The Donor Side: Aid as Stick and Carrot 132

VI. Humanitarian Space in North Korea	156
The Role of North Korean Authorities 157 Food Aid 158 Nutritional and Health Programs 180 Food Security and Agriculture 201
VII. Dealing with Moral Dilemmas in North Korea	216
Victim-Centered, Introvert and Extrovert Approaches in North Korea 216 The Ethical Framework of Humanitarian Actors in North Korea 231
VIII. Lessons and Conclusions	258
The Debate on a Discredited Humanitarianism 259 The Search for 'A New Moral Banner to March Behind' 264 Lessons from North Korea: Towards Consistency in Humanitarian Action 277
Interviewees	282
Bibliography	285
Index	297