

Contents

Introduction .....	11
I. Industrialization, the development of the working class and the beginnings of the trade union movement around the middle of the nineteenth century.....	15
1. Industrialization and the emergence of the working class: the development of the “social question” .....	15
2. Towards the formation of the first trade unions .....	21
3. Organizational setbacks in the reactionary 1850s.....	28
II. The rise of the labour movement in the 1860s and 1870s .....	31
1. The emergence of class society .....	31
2. The breakthrough .....	37
3. The trade unions and the struggle between the parties.....	41
4. Crisis in the trade unions and the beginnings of centralization ..	47
III. Illegality: the trade unions under the Socialist Law 1878-1890 .....	52
1. Political disenfranchisement and social policy: the Bismarckian State and the working class.....	52
2. The trade unions go underground.....	55
IV. The unions under the Wilhelminian Empire: the breakthrough of mass organization 1890-1914 .....	62
1. The organization of industrial capitalism: the economic and social development of the Wilhelminian Empire .....	62
2. Organizational problems on the road to the mass union.....	69
The Free trade unions 69 – The Hirsch-Duncker trade associations 76 – The Christian trade unions 77 – Structural obstacles to organization 81 – Ideological and political divisions within the working class and the split in the trade union movement 85
3. Conflicts over the independence of the trade unions .....	87
Free trade unions and the SPD: from subordination to equality 87 – The Christian unions, the Catholic Church and the Centre Party: inter-denominationalism and party-political neutrality put to the test 94
4. Industrial struggle, collective agreements and social reform: trade union work under the Empire .....	98

5.	Trade union reform policy under the authoritarian State: a balance sheet .....	106
V.	Upheaval: the trade unions in the First World War 1914-1918 ...	109
1.	Beginnings of the political truce: for defence of the realm, peace through victory and social reform .....	109
2.	Towards political integration .....	115
3.	The trade union mass movement and non-union mass protest	123
VI.	The struggle for a new political order: the trade unions in the early years of the Weimar Republic.....	129
1.	The trade unions in the revolution of 1918-19 .....	129
2.	Policy changes and union reorganization, 1919-20 .....	139
	The Free trade unions 139 – The Christian-national unions 147 – The Hirsch-Duncker associations 150 – International trade union confederations 150 – Membership trends 151
3.	Back on the defensive: from the Kapp Putsch to inflation .....	153
VII.	The trade unions' role in constructing the social state 1924-1930	159
1.	Heading for the "social state"? The middle years of the Weimar Republic.....	159
2.	The unions' organizational consolidation.....	168
3.	The beginnings and limits of a joint programme of all the national union federations .....	171
4.	Into the crisis: the Ruhr iron dispute 1928.....	177
VIII.	In the shadow of the Depression: the dissolution of the trade unions 1930-1933 .....	180
1.	The Depression and the weakening of the trade union organizations .....	180
2.	Powerless in the crisis.....	184
	The collapse of the Grand Coalition in March 1930 185 – The "Brüning Era": fruitless tolerance and loyalty 186 – Against the Pa- pen Cabinet: powerless opposition 196 – The Schleicher cabinet: a last-minute attempt at stabilization 201
3.	The trade unions in the Weimar Republic: a balance sheet.....	201

IX.	Under the National-Socialist dictatorship: persecution, resistance and exile 1933-1945.....	204
	1. Between protest and compliance: the end of the trade unions under the National-Socialists .....	204
	2. The social order of the “Führer State” .....	209
	3. Trade unionists in the resistance and in exile .....	217
X.	Between hopes of reconstruction and restoration: the re-establishment of the trade unions 1945-1949 .....	225
	1. From local beginnings to national organizations .....	225
	2. Trade union work under occupation law .....	232
	3. The foundation of the German Trade Union Federation .....	242
	4. The post-war period – a “wasted opportunity”? .....	246
XI.	Social successes and political defeats: the trade unions in the years of the “economic miracle” 1950-1965 .....	248
	1. The disputes over the Law on Co-determination in the Coal and Steel Industry and the Works Constitution Act.....	248
	2. The unions’ share in the “economic miracle”: policy on wages, working hours and social welfare.....	259
	The economic trend 260 – Pay policy: a fair wind 261 – Heading for the 40-hour week 266 – Strike policy 270 – Decisions of principle on social policy 272
	3. The trade unions as a political opposition .....	275
	Against rearmament and the issue of nuclear equipment to the Bundeswehr 277 – The start of the conflict over the emergency laws 281
	4. Under the impact of the “economic miracle”: social change, organizational problems and a new policy direction .....	289
XII.	A new departure: the trade unions in the years of social reform 1966-1974/76.....	302
	1. Trade unions in politics: shared responsibility and a share in shaping events .....	303
	The Grand Coalition: fighting the crisis, social policy initiatives and the adoption of the emergency laws 304 – The first years of the Social-Liberal coalition: social reforms – aims and realities 312
	2. Collective bargaining: from a low profile, via spontaneous strikes to a more aggressive approach .....	321

3.	Good times for trade union organization: increase in membership and heyday of the “co-operative economy” .....	328
XIII.	Power and impotence of the trade unions in the crisis of the 1970s and 1980s .....	335
1.	Cyclical and structural crises, mass unemployment and organizational stagnation .....	335
2.	On to the political defensive .....	341
	The “Schmidt Era”: the start of an uphill struggle 341 – After the “watershed” of autumn 1982: on the sidelines 345
3.	The unions fall back on their own strength: collective bargaining on a collision course .....	357
4.	A phase of reorganization: problem areas in trade union policy	368
XIV.	Challenges at the close of the century: the “watershed” of 1989/90 and the impact of globalization .....	372
1.	The “watershed” of 1989/90: organizational and political consequences .....	372
	DGB and FDGB: the end of “top-level diplomacy” 373 – The end of the FDGB and the re-structuring of the trade union system in the GDR 376 – To take part in shaping German unity? Trade union policy in 1989/90 384
2.	Trade unions in politics: faced with new problems.....	391
	Challenges at the turn of the millennium 391 – The second half of the “Kohl Era”: in favour of a pro-active employment policy – against social cuts 395 – In the era Gerhard Schröder’s “Red-Green Coalition”-Government: hopes – disillusion 407 – Where do trade unions stand in terms of party politics 414 – Trade unionists in Parliament (Bundestag) 419
3.	Bargaining policy against fierce resistance.....	421
	How to protect the system of collective agreements 421 – Industrial action under difficult conditions 424 – Wage policy on the defensive 426 – About working time 432
4.	Fit for the next century? Organizational restructuring and programmatic clarification .....	436
	Membership development 436 – The end “Gemeinwirtschaft” 439 – Reform of the DGB 440 – Mergers 442 – Programmatic reorientation of the DGB 446

Conclusion: an appraisal of the achievements and prospects of trade union policy.....	454
---	-----

Appendix

I. Tables

1. Membership of the national trade union federations
a) The Free, Christian and Hirsch-Duncker trade unions, 1868-1932.....	464
b) Free, Christian-national and Hirsch-Duncker salaried employees' federations 1920-1931.....	466
c) German Trade Union Federation (DGB) and German Salaried Employees' Union (DAG) 1951-2003 resp. 2000.....	467
2. Industrial action
a) Industrial disputes in 1848, 1869, 1871-1882 and 1884-1890..	469
b) Industrial disputes conducted by the Free trade unions, 1890-1898.....	469
c) Industrial disputes (strikes and lockouts) affecting workers in trade and industry 1899-1933.....	470
d) Industrial disputes 1949-2002.....	471
3. Wages and salaries
a) Real wages of workers in trade and industry under the Empire 1871-1913.....	473
b) Real wages of workers in trade and industry under the Weimar Republic and the "Third Reich" 1925-39.....	473
c) Real gross hourly and weekly wages of workers in West German industry, 1950-78.....	474
d) Average gross wages of workers in industry in 1913-14 and 1925-86.....	475
e) Average gross wages of workers in industry, 1958-2002.....	476
f) Gender wage differences in the textile industry, 1913-78.....	477
4. Working hours
a) Length of the working day and working week in industry, 1800-1918.....	478
b) The length of the working week in industry, 1919-90.....	480
c) The length of the working week in industry in "old" and "new" states of the Federal Republic of Germany 1991-2002.....	481

5. Unemployment
a) Unemployment rates, 1887-1939.....	482
b) Unemployment rates, 1950-2002.....	483
6. Structure of the labour force
a) Persons in paid employment by economic sector, 1882-2002....	484
b) Employment categories 1895-2002.....	485
II. Bibliography
1. Bibliographies .....	486
2. Trade Union History .....	486
III. Abbreviations.....	500
IV. Glossary of other organizations .....	505
V. Index of Names.....	507
The Author .....	512