

Table of Contents

TABLE OF CONTENTS	VIII
PREFACE	2
ABSTRACT	4
INTRODUCTION	7
PART I
Legal Possibility and Practical Necessity of the EU-Constitution	12
1. The Term “Constitution” .....	12
1.1. The “classic” Definition .....	13
1.2. Appropriateness of the “classic” Definition for the EU ..	13
1.2.1. The New Concept.....	14
1.2.2. The demos Question.....	15
1.3. A (Constitutional) Treaty as a Constitution: Legal Possibility ? .	19
1.3.1. No more than a Treaty.....	20
1.3.2. A Treaty as Constitution.....	20
1.3.3. Evaluation and Conclusion .....	22
1.4. Intermediate Conclusion.....	23
2. Does Europe already have a Constitution ?.....	24
2.1. The Legal Framework of the EU .....	24
2.2. Constitutionalization of the Treaties by the ECJ .....	25
2.2.1. Doctrines and the Court’s Language.....	25
2.2.2. Consequence .....	27
2.3. International Treaties or de facto Constitution ? .....	29
2.4. Intermediate Conclusion.....	32
3. Necessity of a (formal) Constitution .....	32

3.1.	Declarations of Nice and Laeken in 2001 .....	33
3.2.	Influence of the Enlargement.....	34
3.3.	Symbolic Value.....	35
3.4.	Intermediate Conclusion.....	36
4.	The Myths concerning the European Constitution .....	37
4.1.	The Creation of a Super-State.....	37
4.2.	European Constitution swallows National Constitutions	38
4.3.	Extensive EU-Powers over Foreign Affairs, Defence and Employment Laws .....	39
5.	Intermediate Conclusion to Part I .....	39

PART II

A Successful Advance on the Treaty System ?		42
1.	Advantages and Disadvantages of written Constitutions	42
2.	Determination and Assessment of Success .....	43
3.	Declarations of Nice and Laeken.....	43
4.	Simplification and Reorganization of the Treaties .....	44
4.1.	Meaning of Simplification and Reorganization.....	44
4.2.	One Union.....	45
4.3.	The (unfinished) Merger of the Pillars.....	46
5.	Analysis of specific Parts of the Constitutional Treaty...	47
5.1.	The Union of the People.....	47
5.2.	The “Exit-Clause” .....	48
5.3.	Fundamental Principles, Rights and Values .....	49
5.4.	Decision-Making in the (European) Council.....	51
5.5.	Competences and Powers .....	53
5.5.1.	The Competences.....	53
5.5.2.	The Principle of Subsidiarity .....	54
5.5.3.	The Flexibility Clause .....	55
5.5.4.	Intermediate Conclusion.....	56
5.6.	The new Institutional Order.....	57
5.6.1.	Increasing Democratic Legitimacy and Transparency....	58
5.6.2.	Improving Efficiency .....	59