

CONTENTS

List of Abbreviations	iii
Preface	vi
1. Globalisation as a Political Project	1
The Globalisation Debate	1
Migration and Globalisation Research	7
Globalisation as Project? The Neo-Gramscian Perspective	12
Conclusion	20
2. Institutional Asymmetry in the Global Economy: Freedom for Capital – Restricted Migration	25
Embedded Liberalism	26
Institutionalising Liberalism Worldwide	29
Migration in the Global Political Economy	42
Liberalism and Migration Policies – Towards a Postnational Constellation?	49
Conclusion	67
3. The Neo-Gramscian Theory of Globalisation	71
Conceptualising Hegemonic Transformations	72
Crisis and Transformation: From the Pax Americana to Neoliberalism	77
The US and Globalisation	86
Migration in the Neoliberal Project	90
Conclusion	101

Neoliberal Theory and International Migration	107
Private International Fora: The Trilateral Commission	113
The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development	116
Conclusion	139
5. Immigration and Labour Market Restructuring	143
The Neoliberal Approach to Labour Market Restructuring	145
Contesting the Global: Free Trade, Migration and Sweatshops in the United States	148
Restructuring German Capitalism: Temporary Workers in the New European Division of Labour	168
Conclusion	188
6. Global Citizenship and Territoriality in a Global Political Economy	191
Globalising Citizenship?	194
Migration and Territoriality	205
Neo-Gramscianism as a Theory of Globalisation	213
Closed Borders – Open Societies? Normative Implications	224
Bibliography	227