

Research Center
for Constructive
Conflict Management

Content

Acknowledgements	5
Introduction	7
Moving out of the Dayton Era into the Era of Brussels? Martina Fischer, Berghof Research Center, Berlin	7
Ten Years After Dayton: An Overview	47
Overcoming Ethnic Politics in Bosnia?	49
Achievements and Obstacles to European Integration James Lyon, International Crisis Group, Belgrade, Sarajevo
The Need for Economic Development and Democratic Planning European Stability Initiative, Berlin, Brussels, Sarajevo	69
Refugee Return – Success Story or Bad Dream?	107
A Review from Eastern Bosnia Monika Kleck, Freudenberg Foundation, Tuzla
Building Civil Society in Relation to State Structures	123
From the “Civil Sector” to Civil Society? Progress and Prospects Ismet Sejjija, Tuzla University	125
Crossing Borders? Activities of the Trade Unions Interview with J. Redzepovic, ICFTU, Sarajevo, by M. Fischer	141
Electronic Media: Regulation Efforts in a Semi-Protectorate Tanja Topic, Friedrich Ebert Foundation, Banja Luka	157
The Potential of Inter-Religious Dialogue Zoran Brajovic, Bonn University	185
Local Self-Government: A Must for Democracy, Civil Society and EU-Integration Mirko Pejanovic, Sarajevo University	215

Youth Work and Education Reform	231
The Need for Multi-Dimensional Youth Work:	233
Education, Interethnic Networking and Income Generation
Martina Fischer, Berghof Research Center
“Križevici means Junction”:	257
Working with Young Returnees in Sensitive Areas
Interview with L. Sejfića and A. Harbić, Ipak Tuzla, by M. Fischer
Peer Support and Volunteering: Experiences of Schüler Helfen Leben	279
Steffen Emrich and Christian Rickerts, Schüler Helfen Leben
Integration or Segregation? Reforming the Education Sector	297
Astrid Fischer, Berghof Research Center
Dealing with the Past	325
Facing the Past and Transitional Justice in Countries of Former Yugoslavia	327
Natascha Zupan, Working Group for Development and Peace, Bonn
Working with Traumatized Women	343
Monika Kleck, Freudenberg Foundation, Tuzla
Bosnian Society on the Path to Justice, Truth and Reconciliation	357
Sanela Basic, Sarajevo University
Confronting the Past and Involving War Veterans for Peace:	387
Activities by the Centre for Nonviolent Action, Sarajevo, Belgrade
Martina Fischer, Berghof Research Center
“Finding a Balance”: Dealing with the Past, Present and Future	417
Interview with A. Hasanbegović, N. Horozović, S. Deanković,
T. Smidling, CNA Sarajevo, by M. Fischer
Challenges for Sustainable Peacebuilding	438
Centre for Nonviolent Action, Sarajevo, Belgrade
Conclusion	441
Bosnia’s Challenge: Economic Reform, Political Transformation and War-to-Peace Transition
Martina Fischer, Berghof Research Center
Acronyms and Glossary	471
Map of Bosnia-Herzegovina	476
Contributors	477