

Contents

Antonio Varsori (University of Padua): Introduction	9
I. The European Community's Decision-Making Process and its Actors: Institutions and National Governments
Michel Dumoulin (Université Catholique de Louvain-la-Neuve) Les travaux du Comité intérimaire pour le Marché commun et Euratom (avril 1957 – janvier 1958)	23
Piers Ludlow (London School of Economics and Political Science) A Supranational Icarus? Hallstein, the early Commission and the search for an independent role	37
Gérard Bossuat (Université de Cergy-Pontoise) La culture de l'unité européenne des élites françaises aux Communautés européennes	55
Yves Conrad (Université Catholique de Louvain-la-Neuve) Évolution de l'organisation administrative de la Commission et de la question du siège. Un long chemin vers la fusion des exécutifs (1960-1967)	79
Lorenzo Mechi (University of Padua) Les États membres, les institutions et les débuts du Fonds Social Européen	95
II. The European Community's Decision-Making Process and its Actors: Birth and Consolidation of a European Political Milieu
Wolfram Kaiser (University of Portsmouth) A Transnational Policy Community in Retreat? The Christian Democratic Network in the EC 1958-1972	119

Erol Kuhlaci (Université Libre de Bruxelles) The Socialist Parties of the European Community and the Common Market: a necessity, but not an end in itself	135
Silvio Pons (University of Rome – Tor Vergata) The Italian Communist Party Between Brussels and Moscow	151
Daniele Pasquinucci (University of Siena) A Passage to the West: The Italian socialists and European integration in the Sixties	161
Daniela Preda (University of Genoa) The Movements for European unity (1958 to 1972)	177
III. The European Community's Decision-Making Process and its Actors: Interest and Pressure Groups
Luciano Segreto (University of Florence) L'UNICE et la construction européenne (1947-1969)	195
Andrea Ciampani (LUMSA University Rome) The International Relations of Organised Labour: Italian and European Trade Unions shaping ETUC	209
Thierry Grosbois (Université Catholique de Louvain-la-Neuve) La stratégie de quelques multinationales à l'égard des Traités de Rome et du Marché Commun 1957-1972	227
IV. The European Community and its Policies: the Internal Dimension
Ruggero Ranieri (University of Padua) The origins and achievements of the EEC Customs Union (1958-1968)	257
Gilbert Noël (Université d'Artois – Arras) Les finalités de la politique agricole commune (1958-1972). Marché et cohésion économique et sociale	283
Maria Eleonora Guasconi (University of Urbino) The Origins of the European Social Policy: the Standing Committee on Employment and Trade Unions	301

Ilaria Poggiolini (University of Pavia) How the Heath government revised the European lesson: British transition to EEC membership (1972)	313
Lucia Coppolaro (European University Institute) The European Economic Community in the GATT negotiations of the Kennedy Round (1964-1967): global and regional trade	347
V. The European Community and its Policies: the External Dimension
Jean-Marie Palayret (EUI – EC Historical Archives) Mondialisme contre régionalisme: CEE et ACP dans les négociations de la convention de Lomé 1970-75	369
Elena Calandri (University of Florence) La CEE et les relations extérieures 1958-1960	399
Massimiliano Guderzo (University of Florence) The United States and the European Economic Community: from John F. Kennedy to Lyndon B. Johnson	433
Andrea Benvenuti (University of Queensland) British entry into the European Economic Community (EEC) as a strategic problem in Anglo-Australian relations, 1961-67	455
Notes on contributors	471
List of abbreviations	473
Index of Principal Proper Names	479