

Contents

Thomas Giegerich
Introductory Remarks	9
Part I: Conflict Lines on Cyprus	13
Peter A. Zervakis
Political Conflict Lines on Cyprus and the Role of International Organizations	13
Christian Rumpf
Comments on the Legal Status of Cyprus: Issues of Conflict and their Causes	37
Jan Asmussen
Comment: A New Picture of Cyprus	63
Part II: Ethnic Conflicts in the Euro-Atlantic Area of Constitutionalism as a Comparative Background to the Cyprus Conflict	69
Stefan Oeter
Federal Settlements of Ethnic Conflicts as Potential Models for a Resolution of the Cyprus Conflict – Comparative Survey (Belgium, Switzerland, Canada)	69
Giovanni Biaggini
Comment I: The Foundations of the “Swiss Model”	87
Jean-Claude Scholsem
Comment II: The Belgian Case	93
Enric Martínez-Herrera
Unresolved Ethnic Conflicts as a Warning against Exaggerated Expectations. Lessons from the Basque Country and Catalonia	97
Rainer Grote
Comment I: The Case of Northern Ireland	113
Giovanni Poggeschi
Comment II: Cyprus and South Tyrol: Two Cases of Ethnic Conflicts with Different Outcomes	129
Part III: Assistance Provided by International Organizations to the Democratic Restructuring of States	137
Thomas D. Grant
Federalism with International Guarantee: International Organizations and the New Constitutions of Some ‘Failed’ or ‘Failing’ States	137

Didier Pfirter

Genesis and Key Elements of the Draft Constitution in the Comprehensive Settlement Plan of the UN Secretary-General for Cyprus (Annan Plan) 161

Joseph S. Joseph

Comment I: The Cyprus Problem, the EU and the Annan Plan 181

Bekir Azgin

Comment II: The Cyprus Conflict – A Case Study for the EU or a Headache? 199

Part IV: The EU Accession of Cyprus – Priorities, Potentials and Risks 205

Frank Hoffmeister

The Role of the EU in the Cyprus Conflict 205

Thomas Diez

The European Union and the Transformation of Conflictual Constitutional Systems: The Case of Cyprus 219

Haluk Kabaalioglu

Comment I: Lessons to be Learned from the Greek Cypriot Rejection of the Annan Plan 233

Ioannis A. Tassopoulos

Comment II: The Annan Plan as a “Constitution of Transition” and the Participation of Cyprus in the European Union 241

Christos Clerides

Comment III: The EU Accession of Cyprus – Priorities, Potentials and Risks 247

Thomas Giegerich

The EU Accession of Cyprus and the Fate of the Annan Plan – Concluding Remarks 253

Annex I: The Comprehensive Settlement of the Cyprus Problem (Annan Plan) – Excerpts 281

Annex II: Declarations Made with Regard to the Additional Protocol to Extend the Ankara Agreement to All EU Members 345

List of Contributors 349