

Inhalt/Contents

Geleitwort Sujit Chowdhury	VII
Greeting Address on the Occasion of a DAAD-sponsored "Summer-School", October 2003, Göttingen H. E. Hiruy Amanuel	IX
Greeting Address on the Occasion of a DAAD-sponsored "Summer-School", October 2003, Göttingen Brigitta Benzing	XIII
Motto	XV
Civil Society, Globalization, NGOs, Collective and Individual Rights Girma Taye	1
Die Gruppe und die „zivilgesellschaftliche“ Gruppe – Definitive Überlegungen zu Übergängen und Unterscheidungen Brigitta Benzing	7
Ethnic Conflicts and the Role of Civil Society in Ethiopia Wolde-Selassie Abbute	19
Civil Society and Religious Difference: Note on Gutara Institution in Wolaita, Southern Ethiopia Data Dea	41
Violence Against Women in Ethiopia. A Strong Case of Civil Society Concern Hirut Terefe	59
Some Traditional Harmful Practices That Affect Status and Prominence of Women in Some Selected Communities in Ethiopia Abraham Husain	83
Civil Society – Access to Land is a Key for Alleviating Poverty The Study Group „Economy“	95

Civil Society and Legal Awareness in Ethiopia Girma Gizaw	101
Federal and Regional States and the Legal Framework of Civil Society Organizations in Ethiopia Guday Emirie, Teshome Girma	110
Aspekte administrativer Hindernisse für die Entfaltung der Zivilgesellschaft in Geschichte und Gegenwart Äthiopiens Kahsai Wolde-Giorgis	117
Zum Problem gewaltförmiger Regimewechsel in Äthiopien – eine Gefahr für die Zivilgesellschaft? Michael Knüppel	129
Socio-Economic Reintegration of Ex-Soldiers: A Case of Two Co-operatives in Addis Ababa Yisak Tafere	139
The Capital City Addis Ababa as Paradigm of the Civil Society Gashaw Abate	163
Anstelle eines Nachworts	179
ANHANG
Rezension	183
Reintegration	187
Der Herausgeber in eigener Sache	193
Seminare 2004	195
Seminarstatistik 2004	196