

Contents

Preface	7
1 Introduction
1.1 Why Study Civic Education in Romania?	9
1.2 How This Book Is Designed	14
2 The Role of Education for Democracy
2.1 Education for Democracy	17
2.2 The Concept of Civil Society in the Theory of Democracy	29
3 Education for Democracy in Romania
3.1 Basic Introduction to Romania Today	43
3.2 Civil Society and Democracy in Romania	51
3.3 General Education
3.3.1 Introduction	73
3.3.2 A Children's History	75
3.3.3 The Institutional Framework and the School Environment	79
3.3.4 The Steps to Reform	83
3.3.5 The Debate Concerning Textbook Policies: A Benchmark of Education Reform	86
3.3.6 Schools and Civic Education	92
3.3.7 Public Opinion: Parents as a Brake on Reform	96
3.3.8 Conclusion	102
3.4 Higher Education
3.4.1 Introduction	104
3.4.2 The Institutional Environment of Academia	107

3.4.3 Informal Institutions and Practices	121
3.4.4 The Teaching Environment	126
3.4.5 The Research Environment	129
3.4.6 The Old Boys, the New Ones, and Their Roles in Romanian Society	145
3.4.7 Conclusion	150

4 Conclusions and Recommendations

4.1 The Shortcomings of Civic Education in Romania
4.1.1 General Education	153
4.1.2 Academic Education	157
4.2 Civic Education Reform in the Context of Democratic Transition	161
4.3 Recommendations	166

Bibliography	171
---------------------	-----

List of Interviews	183
---------------------------	-----