

CONTENTS

ABBREVIATIONS	xv
GUIDE TO PRONUNCIATION	xvii
GLOSSARY	xix
CODING OF INTERVIEWS	xxiii
MAP OF BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA	xxiv

INTRODUCTION

1. Overview	1
1.1. Factors Of Instability And Fragmentation	1
1.2. Factors of Stability and Restoration	3
2. The Research Undertaken	5
3. Investigative Questions	7
Part One: Foundational Questions	7
Part Two: Empirical Questions	7
Part Three: Theological Questions	7
4. Delimitation of the Study	7
5. Editorial Remarks	9
6. Author's Perspective	11
6.1. The Protestant Communities	11
7. Chapter Outline	16

PART ONE

A Foundational Investigation of the Relationship of Religion to Nation-Building and Peace-Building

CHAPTER ONE: RELIGION'S ROLE IN THE FORMATION OF THE BOŠNĀK, SERBIAN AND CROATIAN NATIONAL NARRATIVES

1. Introduction	21
2. Religion and the Serbian National Narrative	21

2.1. Heavenly Serbia: Religion and Serbian National Identity	22
2.2. Insurrection and Resurrection: Towards a Modern Serbian Identity	26
2.3. Conclusion to the Serbian National Identity Section	34
3. Religion and the Bošnjak National Narrative	35
3.1. Religion's Part in the Bošnjak Ethno-Genetic Narrative	36
3.2. The Defining Role of Religion in Medieval Bosnia and Hum	36
3.3. The Islamisation of Bosnia-Herzegovina	38
3.4. The Impact of Sufism on the Bošnjak Identity	39
3.5. Reforms and the Shift Towards Secular Nationalism	40
3.6. The Muslim National Question and Legislated Injustice	42
3.7. Religion in the Communist Period	43
3.8. Conclusion to the Bošnjak National Identity Section	48
4. Religion and the Croatian National Narratives	49
4.1. Language as a Basis of National Identity	49
4.2. The Historical Statehood Narrative	50
4.3. The Church's Role Through the Communist Period	52
4.4. The Church's Role in the Post-Communist Period	56
4.5. Conclusion to the Croatian National Identity Section	58
5. Conclusion	59

CHAPTER TWO: THE LIMITATIONS OF WESTERN INTERVENTION TOWARDS PEACE-BUILDING AND SOCIAL RESTORATION

1. Introduction	61
2. Contextual Background to International Intervention	61
3. The Dayton Accord and its Implementation	63
3.1. Annex 1: Military Aspects	64
3.2. Annex 2: Inter-Entity Boundary	64
3.3. Annex 4: Constitution	65
3.4. Annex 3: Elections	66
3.5. Annex 7: The Agreement on Refugees and Displaced Persons	69
3.6. Annex 6: Human Rights	71
3.7. Assessing the Dayton Accord and its Implementation	73
4. The Ideological Shift in International Intervention	75
4.1. Democratisation in Bosnia-Herzegovina	76
4.2. Limitations of International Intervention	77
4.3. The Case for Religion in Peace-Building and Social Restoration	78
5. Conclusion	79

CHAPTER THREE: THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF RELIGION TO PEACE-BUILDING

1. Introduction	81
2. The Role of Religion in Identity Formation	81
3. The Concept of Peace in Religious Discourse	83
3.1. The Conceptual Domain of 'Peace'	83
3.2. Religion and the Wider Concept of Peace	85
4. Religion and Global Ethics	91
5. Religion and Human Rights	94
5.1. Religion and Human Rights: Towards Convergence	95
5.2. Contributions of Diverse Churches to Human Rights	96
5.3. Contribution of Islam to Human Rights	97
6. Religion and Reconciliation	99
7. Conclusion	102

PART TWO

An Empirical Investigation Focusing on the Relationship of Religious Leaders, Women, and Students To Peace-Building and Social Restoration

CHAPTER FOUR: VIEWS OF RELIGIOUS LEADERS ON PEACE-BUILDING AND SOCIAL RESTORATION

1. Introduction	107
2. Identity Formation and Transformation	108
2.1. Identity and Barrier Setting	108
2.2. Identity Historically and Politically Determined	110
2.3. National Identity Defined by Religious Tradition	112
2.4. Identity Defined by God in Creation	114
2.5. Identity Shaped by the Imago Dei in Created Humanity	117
2.6. Identity Defined through New Creation	118
2.7. Conclusion to the Identity Formation Section	121
3. Religion and Politics	122
3.1. The Nature of Politics and Religion during the Socialist Period	122
3.2. Religion and National Politics	123
3.3. Separation of Religion and Politics	126
3.4. Conclusion to the Religion and Politics Section	127

4. Ethics and Morality	128
4.1. The Ethic of 'Life Dialogue'	128
4.2. Religious Ethics and Secular Society	129
4.3. Religious Ethics and its Contribution to Social Restoration	130
4.4. Conclusion to the Ethics and Morals Section	132
5. Justice and Forgiveness	133
5.1. Justice Externally Administered: The Hague Tribunal	133
5.2. Justice Locally Administered: Two Barriers	135
5.3. Varieties of Justice from Different Traditions	136
5.4. The Role of the Courts Versus the Role of the Religious Bodies	138
5.5. Forgiveness Overcomes The Legacy Of The Past	138
5.6. The Contribution of Forgiveness to Peace-Building	139
5.7. Conclusion to the Justice and Forgiveness Section	141
6. Conclusion	141

CHAPTER FIVE: VIEWS OF RELIGIOUS WOMEN ON PEACE-BUILDING AND SOCIAL RESTORATION

1. Introduction	143
2. Women in Yugoslav Society	144
2.1. Women in Rural Bosnia, and the Zadruga	144
2.2. Modernisation, Urbanisation and the Changing Role of Women	144
2.3. Women and the Legacy of Violation During the War	146
2.4. Women and Empowerment	147
3. Constructed Narratives of Women and War	150
3.1. Depictions of Women from Nationalist Constructions	150
3.2. Two Depictions of Women from Western Constructions	151
3.3. Assessment of the Narratives	153
4. Women, Religious Faith, and Social Restoration	156
4.1. Distinguishing 'Religion' and 'Faith'	159
4.2. The Transcendent Element of Peace-Building and Restoration	164
4.3. Peace-Building and Restoration Through Family Networks	167
4.4. Forgiveness as a Spirituality of Healing and Wholeness	170
5. Conclusion	172

CHAPTER SIX: VIEWS OF RELIGIOUS STUDENTS ON PEACE-BUILDING AND SOCIAL RESTORATION

1. Introduction	175
2. The Societal Context of Young People	176
3. Religious Factors Influencing Peace-Building	179

3.1. Identity Formation and Values-Clarification	180
3.2. The Nature of Religious Faith	185
3.3. Multi-National Co-Existence (Mitmenschlichkeit)	188
3.4. Forgiveness, Restoration, and Healing	191
4. Conclusion	197

PART THREE

Analytical and Theological Reflection on Peace-Building and Social Restoration Generated from the Context of Bosnia-Herzegovina

CHAPTER SEVEN: ANALYSIS AND THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION FROM THE CONTEXT AND INTERVIEWS

1. Introduction	201
2. Claims to Authentic Religious Faith	202
3. Power, Powerlessness, and Peace-Building	204
4. Overcoming Adversity through Diversity: Four Models	208
5. Restoration as a Leitmotiv for Peace-Building	211
5.1. Exordium	211
5.2. The Views of Interviewees on 'Restoration'	213
5.3. 'Restoration' in the Sociological Context	217
5.4. 'Restoration' in the Theological Context	219
5.5. Conclusion to the Restoration Section	227
6. Conclusion	229

CHAPTER EIGHT: A CONTEXTUAL ANALYSIS OF PEACE-BUILDING: THE ROLE OF RELIGIOUS FAITH SODALITIES

1. Introduction	231
2. Religious Faith Sodalities and Peace-Building	232
2.1. From 'Imagined' to Authentic Communities	232
2.2. The Nature of the Religious Faith Sodalities	233
2.3. The Nature and Role of the Leader (Pravednik)	234
3. Analysis of the Religious Faith Sodalities	235
3.1. Examples of Peace-Building Through Religious Faith Sodalities	235
3.2. The Resources Available to Religious Faith Sodalities	238
4. Overcoming the Legacy of the Mythical Past	244
4.1. The Approach of Demythologisation	244

4.2. Re-Reading Myth as Meta-Narrative	246
4.3. Return to the Narratives, Grand and Personal	251
5. Forgiveness: The Threshold to Social Restoration	251
5.1. Various Perspectives on Forgiveness	251
5.2. Healing Through Forgiveness	255
5.3. Forgiveness and the Healing of Memory	255
5.4. Healing Extended to the Greater Society	258
6. Conclusion	260
CONCLUSION	263
BIBLIOGRAPHY	271
INDEX	301