

Table of Contents

List of abbreviations.....	15
-----------------------------------	-----------

Gerd Mutz, Rainer Klump, Nicola Benda

Introduction: Modernization and Social Transformation in Vietnam. Social Capital Formation and Institution Building	17
--	-----------

1 The role of social capital in Vietnam	19
2 Institution building and economic development	23
3 Images of the Vietnamese transition process	27
4 Conclusion	28

Russell J. Dalton, Nhu-Ngoc T. Ong

Civil Society and Social Capital in Vietnam	30
--	-----------

1 Group memberships and civil society	31
2 Social trust.....	35
3 The consequences of social engagement and social trust.....	38
4 Conclusion	43
5 Methodological appendix.....	44
6 References.....	45

Xiangming Chen

Magic or Myth? Social Capital and Its Consequences in the Asian, Chinese and Vietnamese Contexts 49

1	Introduction.....	49
2	Social capital as a valuable resource.....	50
3	Defining social capital.....	50
4	Toward an integrated view of social capital.....	51
5	The varied role of social capital.....	53
5.1	The macro level: Cross-border integration and national development .	54
5.2	The mesolevel: Employment and competitiveness.....	56
5.3	The micro level: Poverty reduction and personal well-being.....	56
6	Neither magic nor myth: Social capital's complementarities and constraints.....	57
7	Implications for social capital development in Vietnam.....	59
8	References.....	61

Irene Norlund

Social Capital or Social Capitalism – Diversification of the Vietnamese Rural Scenery..... 63

1	Introduction.....	63
2	Some theoretical and methodological reflections.....	64
3	'Social capital'.....	66
4	Economic and sociologic approaches to 'social capital'.....	67
5	'Social capital' in Vietnam.....	68
6	'Social capital' in the sustainable livelihoods project.....	70
7	Field sites.....	71
8	Trieu Khuc – an urbanizing area with close networks.....	73
9	Son La – The Northern Highlands – modernization into catastrophe or sustainability?.....	83
10	Some concluding remarks.....	90
11	References.....	92

Alexandra Winkels

Frontier Migration and Social Capital in Vietnam.....	94
1 Introduction.....	94
2 Rural livelihoods and migration.....	94
3 A framework for the analysis of the role of social capital in migration processes.....	96
4 Research design and background to study migration and social capital in Vietnam.....	98
5 Migration to the Central Highland frontier in the twentieth century ..	102
6 The diffusion of spontaneous/organized dichotomy and the formation of networks.....	103
7 The role of channelling and adaptive functions of social networks in Vietnam.....	105
7.1 Conduits for information.....	105
7.2 Channels for the maintenance of relationships	106
7.3 Access to productive resources: land, markets, and employment.....	106
7.4 Access to human capital: labour and skills	108
7.5 Buffering functions: encapsulating linkages, identity, and exclusion.	110
8 Conclusion	111
9 References.....	112

Cecilia Luttrell

Invisible Institutions: Informal Means of Gaining Access to Natural Resources in Coastal Vietnam	116
1 Introduction.....	116
2 The institutional context of resistance.....	117
3 The tradition of resistance in shaping Vietnamese history.....	121
4 The role of informal institutions in gaining access to resources: Lessons from the case studies	123
4.1 'Hidden' resistance and the subversion of private property institutions.....	124
4.1.1 Objections to the enclosure of open-access mangrove resources.....	126
4.1.2 Objection to outsiders gaining control of resources.....	127
4.2 Access to resources through social institutions.....	129

4.2.1	The dominance of social institutions	129
4.2.2	The importance of personal relations in gaining access to resources	130
4.2.3	The importance of social networks and patronage in times of stress	132
4.3	The implications of informal institutions for livelihood security.....	133
5	Conclusion: Legitimate access brings livelihood security	137
6	References	139

Adam McCarty

Governance and the Role for ODA in Vietnam.....		145
1	Introduction.....	145
2	The transitional challenge of governance in Vietnam.....	147
2.1	Transition and visions of governance	147
2.2	The process of economic transition in Vietnam.....	150
2.3	The institutional challenge.....	150
3	Administrative structure and processes in Vietnam.....	152
3.1	Structure of the State.....	152
3.1.1	The President of the Republic and the National Assembly.....	152
3.1.2	The Government	152
3.1.3	The Communist Party of Vietnam	154
3.2	Terms and conditions in the public service.....	154
3.2.1	Appointment and role of senior positions	154
3.2.2	Role of State Personnel Committee	154
3.2.3	Civil service legislation and regulations	155
3.2.4	Public sector ethics and corruption	155
3.2.5	Public service staff classification and remuneration structure	156
3.2.6	Labour mobility issues.....	157
4	Policy making and reform in Vietnam	158
4.1	Policy making in transition	158
4.2	Fiscal transparency	159
4.3	The public administration reform	160
5	Capacity building needs in administration and policy making – the role for donors	160
5.1	Making big changes happen.....	161
5.2	Strengthening the capacity of key organizations	162

Contents	9
5.3 Training.....	163
5.4 Better and more policy analysis.....	163
6 Rethinking governance assistance.....	164
6.1 Governance technical assistance is different.....	165
6.2 The need for a generational perspective	166
7 Conclusion	166
8 References.....	166

Uwe Blien, Michael von Hauff, Phan thi Hong Van

A selective look at institutional factors behind Vietnam's development	170
1 Introduction.....	170
2 Basic conditions of Vietnam's economic development	171
2.1 Vietnam in the transformation process	171
2.2 The current economic development.....	172
2.3 Structure of the Vietnamese economy	176
3 On the Vietnamese system of education and training	178
3.1 Current educational level.....	178
3.2 Structure of the system of education and training.....	180
3.3 An empirical micro-analysis	183
3.4 Assessment	185
4 A small theoretical model for Vietnam.....	186
5 Development of employment and investment in education	188
6 Conclusions and outlook.....	190
7 References.....	191

Andrea Kilgour

Modernization of the labour market: trials and tribulations of the foreign sector and its impact on social change.....	195
1 Introduction.....	195
2 Transition and globalisation: the Vietnamese economy	196
3 Regulation of the labour market.....	198

4	The operating environment for foreign capital	201
5	Social consequences of foreign investment	202
6	Conclusion	205
7	References.....	207

Thomas Heberer

Bottom-up Privatization under the Conditions of a "Vietnamese" Way to Socialism..... 209

1	Privatization as a term.....	209
2	Privatization initiatives on the part of peasants through collective action and limited fence-breaking.....	211
3	Development and state of bottom-up privatization	215
4	Conclusion	226
5	References.....	228

Nancy K. Napier, Lan Nguyen

Socialism and Materialism in Vietnam: Legacy for State Owned Enterprise Payment Systems..... 233

1	Review of the legacy of socialism	235
1.1	Single party system, ownership, and coordination.....	235
1.2	Pricing.....	236
1.3	Investment.....	236
1.4	Employment and wages	236
1.5	Hierarchy in the collective	237
1.6	Central planning.....	237
2	Embedded materialism and its impact on salary structure and payment	238
2.1	Marx's labour theory of value.....	238
2.2	Salary structure and payment practice in Vietnam's reformed SOEs.	240
3	Implications for policy makers in Vietnam.....	243
3.1	Equitization.....	244
3.2	Improvements in performance without privatization	245

Contents	11
3.2.1 Autonomy	245
3.2.2 “Knowing” and the role of the market	246
3.2.3 The role of capital market	248
4 References	248

Axel Wolz

Savings and Credit Co-operatives in Vietnam – From One Shock to the Next	252
1 Introduction	252
2 Collapse of the traditional credit co-operatives	253
3 Informal finance systems in rural areas	254
4 Set up of People's Credit Funds	256
5 Main characteristics and problems of PCF	260
6 Basic features of People's Credit Funds in comparison to historical experiences in Germany	269
7 Outlook	272
8 References	274

Thomas Bonschab, Rainer Klump

Financial Constraints to Private Investment in Vietnam	276
1 Introduction	276
2 The crucial role of private investment for economic development in Vietnam after Doi Moi	277
2.1 Investment and conditional convergence of provincial income	277
2.2 Investment and provincial growth	279
3 Financial constraints to higher private investment	282
3.1 Formal and informal financial institutions	282
3.2 The problem of non-performing loans	284
3.3 Causes and consequences of dollarisation	286
4 Conclusions	287
5 References	288

Ahmad Zubaidi Baharumshah, Marwan A. Thanoon

Domestic Savings, Foreign Capital and Economic Growth:
The Case of Vietnam and Its Neighboring Countries 290

1	Introduction.....	290
2	Some empirical issues on savings behavior.....	292
3	Methodology and source of the data.....	294
4	Empirical results.....	299
4.1	Long-run equilibrium saving equation.....	299
4.2	Short-run dynamics.....	301
4.3	Granger causality analysis.....	302
5	Conclusions and policy implications.....	303
6	References.....	305

Angie Ngoc Tran, David Smith

Cautious Reformers and Fence Breakers:
Vietnam's Economic Transition in Comparative Perspective ... 308

1	Globalization and developmental states.....	310
2	A brief history of Vietnams's economic transition.....	313
2.1	The late 1970s: Growing contradictions.....	313
2.2	1980-1985: The central planning model in crisis & a search for alternatives.....	315
2.2.1	"Fence-breaking" and state response.....	315
2.2.2	In search for an economic transition.....	317
2.3	1986-1989: Breaking down the fences and institutionalizing the market economy.....	319
2.4	1990-1996: Overcoming ideological and geographical barriers.....	322
2.5	Global fence breaking: Transcending the US trade embargo and the Eastern Bloc.....	323
2.6	Direct foreign investment & overseas Vietnamese.....	325
2.7	Social impacts of economic reform.....	326
3	Conclusion.....	327
4	Chronology 1979-1996.....	330
5	References.....	333

Peter Sturm

Experience from Vietnam: GTZ Development Policies in the Light of the Social Capital Paradigm..... 337

- 1 Introduction..... 337
- 2 GTZ development policies in Vietnam and the concept of “Social Capital”..... 338
 - 2.1 GTZ development projects pursued in Vietnam 339
 - 2.2 Relation to the social capital concept..... 339
- 3 GTZ experience in Vietnam..... 340
 - 3.1 Strong policy ownership but weak public sector governance 341
 - 3.2 Consequences..... 342
 - 3.3 The “enigma” of good overall economic performance 343
- 4 Implications for future policies 343

Til Schoenherr

Framing Alignments of Vietnamese Development Actors – Impacts on Social Capital Formation and Institution Building in Vietnam..... 345

- 1 Research objectives and methodology 345
- 2 The context of the research-field: Vietnamese administrations 347
- 3 Idealization of Vietnamese real-types 348
 - 3.1 Actor-Type A: The Representative 349
 - 3.2 Actor-Type B: The Mediator 351
 - 3.3 Actor-Type C: The East-Western Confusionist 352
 - 3.4 Actor-Type D: The Taoist-Darwinist..... 353
 - 3.5 Vietnamese framing alignments within the context of the development discourse..... 355
- 4 Categories and their relations within the Context of the Development Discourse..... 357
 - 4.1 Culture specific strategies to realize personal interests..... 358
 - 4.2 Culture specific strategies to reduce ambiguity 358
 - 4.3 Culture specific strategies to legitimate power and authority 359
 - 4.4 Culture specific strategies to ensure trust within the development discourse 359

5	Consequences to social capital formation and institution building in Vietnam.....	360
6	References	366
	List of Authors	369