

CONTENTS

Foreword	1
1 Media Markets in Central and Eastern Europe – An Introduction	3
Eva-Maria BAUER/Silvia HUBER
1.1 Country Selection	3
1.2 Research Compilers and Research Team Members in the Investigated Countries	4
1.3 Methods.	5
1.4 Structure of the Following Publication	6
2 Media Markets in Central and Eastern Europe A Network Analytic Investigation	9
Silvia HUBER
2.1 Media Pluralism and Media Power	9
2.2 Research on Media Ownership in Central and Eastern Europe	14
2.3 Research Questions	16
2.4 Method	17
2.5 Results	20
2.6 Discussion and Conclusion	46
References	47
3 Overview of Main Players in Bulgarian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Polish, Slovakian, and Hungarian Media Landscape	49
3.1 Bulgaria.	49
Miglena HÖLZER
3.2 Latvia	53
Anita KEHRE
3.3 Lithuania	55
Audrone NUGARAITE
3.4 Poland.	58
Jan PIEKLO

3.5	Slovakia.	59
	Tibor MACAK
3.6	Hungary.	61
	Susanne SASHEGYI
4	Media in the Czech Republic.	63
	Aleš HUDSKÝ
4.1	Print Media in the Czech Republic	63
4.2	Radio	68
4.3	Television.	69
4.4	General Conclusion	70
	References	77
5	Media in Estonia	79
	Taivo PAJU
5.1	Print Media	79
5.2	Radio	84
5.3	Television.	86
5.4	General Conclusion	90
	References	94
6	Media in Slovenia	97
	Marko MILOSAVLJEVIČ
6.1	Print Media	97
6.2	Radio	100
6.3	Television.	102
6.4	General Conclusion	108
	References	112
7	Media in Romania.	115
	Oana VASILESCU
7.1	Print Media	115
7.2	Radio	121
7.3	Television.	123
7.4	General Conclusion	124
7.5	Final Remarks	126
	References	126

8	News Agencies – The Hidden Nerve Centre of the Media . . .	129
	Alexandra FRECH
8.1	Introduction.	129
8.2	The Tasks of News Agencies	131
8.3	The Future of State News Agencies	133
8.4	Overview of the main CEE news agencies	136
	References	136
	The Authors	139
	Appendix.	143