

CONTENT

Foreword by former President of the Republic of Indonesia Abdurrahman Wahid	7
Preface and Acknowledgements Bob S. Hadiwinata and Christoph Schuck	9
Mapping Indonesia's Way towards Democracy: In Search of a Theoretical Frame Bob S. Hadiwinata and Christoph Schuck	11
PART I: THEORIES ON DEMOCRACY AND TRANSITION
Embedded and Defective Democracies Wolfgang Merkel	31
Democracy: Social or Libertarian: Two Opposing Global Concepts Thomas Meyer	65
The Vertical Dimension of Democracy and Development: Federalism, Regionalisation, and Local Autonomy – Some Lessons learned from Europe Dieter Eissel and Alexander Grasse	75
The Foreign Policy of the Democratic Nationstate Reimund Seidelmann	109
Precarious Stateness and the Fleeting Boundaries of Sovereignty: Theoretical Considerations on Giorgio Agamben and the Indonesian Case Andreas Vasilache	123
The Breakdown of Autocratic Rule: Selected Aspects of Transition-Theories as Reflected in Indonesia's Democratization-Process Christoph Schuck	151
PART II: GOVERNANCE AND THE RULE OF LAW
The Indonesian Constitution: Historical Developments and an Evaluation of Recent Constitutional Amendments Sebastian Benesch	177
Political Parties and Elections in Post-Authoritarian Indonesia Yulius P. Hermawan	201

Decentralization and its Impact on Local Democracy in Indonesia: A Case Study from West Java Pius S. Prasetyo	219
The ‘Tradition’ of Corruption and the Challenge of Establishing a ‘Clean’ Political Environment in Indonesia Resy Canonica-Walangitang	243
Part III: THE SECURITY SECTOR
Security Sector Reform in Indonesia: Military vs. Civil Supremacy Ingo Wandelt	269
Terrorism, Intelligence Reform and the Protection of Civil Liberties in Indonesia Aleksius Jemadu	297
Political Violence and Separatist Movements in Indonesia. The Case of West Papua Esther Heidbüchel	311
PART IV: THE POLITICS OF IDENTITY
The Role of Cultural and Linguistic Features in the Creation of New Provinces in Indonesia – the Case of West and Central Java Bernd Nothofer	335
Civil or Uncivil Society? Islamic Extremism and Democratization in Indonesia Bob S. Hadiwinata	345
Inter-Religious Relations and the Future of Democracy in Indonesia Franz Magnis-Suseno	361
Democratization and Foreign Policy in Indonesia: The Impact of Islamic “Symbolic Politics” on Post-Suharto Foreign Policy Anak Agung Banyu Perwita	371
PART V: CONCLUSION
Indonesia: A Defective Democracy faces the Challenge of Democratic Consolidation Bob S. Hadiwinata and Christoph Schuck	395
Note on Contributors	409