

Table of Contents

Preface of the Editors

Thomas Jäger & Gerhard Kümmel	9
--	---

I History and Development

Carlos Ortiz

Overseas Trade in Early Modernity and the Emergence of Embryonic Private Military Companies	11
--	----

Daniel Kramer

Does History Repeat Itself? A Comparative Analysis of Private Military Entities	23
--	----

Kyle M. Ballard

The Privatization of Military Affairs: A Historical Look into the Evolution of the Private Military Industry	37
---	----

Carlos Ortiz

The Private Military Company: An Entity at the Center of Overlapping Spheres of Commercial Activity and Responsibility	55
--	----

Stephan Maninger

Soldiers of Misfortune: Is the Demise of National Armed Forces a Core Contributing Factor in the Rise of Private Security Companies?	69
--	----

Christopher Kinsey

Private Security Companies: Agents of Democracy or Simply Mercenaries?	87
---	----

II Case Studies

Alice E. Fuchs

Searching for Resources, Offering Security ...
Private Military Companies in Sierra Leone 105

Jan Stöber

Contracting in the Fog of War ... Private Security
Providers in Iraq: A Principal-Agent Analysis 121

Carolyn Liss

Privatization of Maritime Security in Southeast Asia 135

Dirk Gielink, Maarten Buitenhuis & René Moelker

No Contractors on the Battlefield: The Dutch
Military's Reluctance to Outsource 149

Gregor Richter

Privatization in the German Armed Forces 165

Kennedy Mkutu

The Private Security Industry in Kenya:
Issues and Challenges 177

Yantsislav Yanakiev & Krasimira Nikolova

Private Security Guards as a Socio-Professional Group
in Bulgaria 203

Ryan Keltz & David R. Segal

The Civilianization of the US Military:
Army and Navy Case Studies of the Effects of Civilian Integration on Military Personnel 213

III Problems and Prospects

Jan Grofe

Human Rights and Private Military Companies:
A Double-Edged Sword too Dangerous to Use? 241

Marc von Boemcken Liaisons Dangereuses: The Cooperation between Private Security Companies and Humanitarian Aid Agencies	259
Kathrin Herbst Private Security Companies and Civil-Military Cooperation	273
Alrik van den Berg Effective Peacekeeping and the Privatization of Security	293
Martin Binder Norms versus Rationality: Why Democracies Use Private Military Companies in Civil Wars	307
Guntram F.A. Werther Back to the Future: Private Military Contractors and Political Theory in the Modern Democratic State	321

IV Legal Issues and Patterns of Regulation

Imke-Ilse Drews Private Military Companies: The New Mercenaries? – An International Law Analysis	331
Christian Schaller Private Security and Military Companies under the International Law of Armed Conflict	345
Maurice Voyame The Notion of ‘Direct Participation in Hostilities’ and Its Implications on the Use of Private Contractors under International Humanitarian Law	361
Katja Weigelt & Frank Märker Who is Responsible? The Use of PMCs in Armed Conflict and International Law	377
Susan Buchner Private Military Companies and Domestic Law in South Africa	395

Andrea Schneiker National Regulatory Regimes for PSMCs and their Activities: Benefits and Shortcomings	407
Deborah Avant Selling Security: Trade-Offs in State Regulation of the Private Security Industry	419
Sebastian Drutschmann Informal Regulation: An Economic Perspective on the Private Security Industry	443

V Conclusion

Thomas Jäger & Gerhard Kümmel PSMCs: Lessons Learned and Where to Go from Here	457
--	-----

Literature	463
-------------------------	-----

About the Authors	501
--------------------------------	-----