

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
List of Acronyms	9
Transition and Renewal: Croatia Transformed.
An Introduction
by Christophe Solioz and Srđan Dvornik	11
1. The Paradigm Shift in the Transitional Conception of Sovereignty
by Žarko Puhovski
1. Approaches to the concept of sovereignty	19
2. Sovereignty in the context of Yugoslavia	26
3. Conclusion	32
2. Contemporary Controversies about Civil Society	33
by Srđan Vrcan
1. Introduction	33
2. Discussion on civil society in the region	44
3. Effects of discussions on civil society in the region	47
4. Perspectives of civil society in the new decade	49
3. Politics from Below and ‘Civil’ Depoliticisation	63
by Srđan Dvornik
1. Introductory questions	63
2. A place for civic commitment	67
3. ‘Civil society’ in Croatia	70
4. Civil society and international support	71
5. ‘Normalisation’ and depoliticisation	75

4. Community Development and Mobilisation: Beyond NGO-isation? by Paul Stubbs	79
1. Introduction	79
2. Conceptualising community development and mobilisation	82
3. The origins of community development in Croatia	91
4. Socioeconomic constraints in contemporary Croatia	94
5. Institutional constraints in contemporary Croatia	97
6. Building what? Donors, NGOs and projects	100
7. The politics of NGOs in Croatia	107
8. Conclusions: Uneven neo-liberalisms revisited	109
5. Croatia's Economic Challenges by Ivo Bićanić	113
1. The relevance of policy and policymakers	113
2. Challenges and constraints to path dependency	115
3. Short-term constraints	132
4. Concluding remarks	139
Selected Bibliography	141
Contributors	155