

Judicial Reforms in Central and Eastern European Countries

Table of contents

Notes on the contributors	7
Introduction Ramona Coman and Jean-Michel De Waele	11
Chapter 1. Judges and Legal Experts in the European Policy of the Rule of Law Promotion Daniela Piana	23
Chapter 2. Evaluation of Sociological Critiques of International Legal Reform Transfers based on an Analysis of American Judicial Assistance in Bulgaria Thierry Delpeuch	79
Chapter 3. Iudex Ex Machina: Institutional and Mental Transitions of Central European Judiciaries Michal Bobek	107
Chapter 4. Reform Strategies around the Bulgarian Judicial Branch: Social Struggles Converted into Struggles about Court Reforms Ole Hammerslev	135
Chapitre 5. Media, Justice and Politics or how the Independence of the Judiciary Became an Issue on the Romanian Political Agenda Ramona Coman	157
Chapter 6. A Constitutional Principle under Debate: Immovability of Judges in the Romanian and Comparative Law Context Radu Carp	199

Chapitre 7. Formalism in Post-Communist Courts. Empirical Study on Judicial Discretion in Polish Administrative Courts Deciding Business Cases Denis Galligan and Marcin Matczak	226
Chapitre 8. Challenges to the Democratic Judicial Reform in Serbia: Legacy of the Past, Political Actors Interests and EU Vagueness Cristina Dallara	251