

Table of Contents

Perspectives on Poverty Alleviation: Europe and beyond . . . . .	1
Clemens SEDMAK
Education, Liberation and the Discourse on Poverty . . . . .	7
1. “If you think because you’re educated . . . ” A reading of Dambudzo Marechera’s “House of Hunger” . . . . .	9
Martina KOPF
2. Education for all: How much will it cost . . . . .	17
Enrique DELAMONICA, Santosh MEHROTRA and Jan VANDEMOORTELE
3. The liberating mission of a university . . . . .	43
Rodolfo CARDENAL
4. Ways towards liberation. Options for the poor and informal education . . . . .	53
Andreas NOVY
5. Does Poverty Research Bear the Danger of Producing Poverty? .	65
Thomas BÖHLER
Combatting Poverty . . . . .	87
6. Does the Popularity of a poverty program imply its success? . . .	89
David BETSON
7. La Lucha contra la pobreza y la vigencia de los derechos humanos en Nicaragua . . . . .	105
Yalina Molina BLANDÓN, Corinne GENDRON, Alain LAPOINTE

8. Strategies for Poverty and Hunger Reduction – from a development and human rights perspective . . . . .	119
Jochen DONNER
9. Beyond Poverty: Precarious Reproduction of Mexican Families: A Case Study in the urban area of Zacatecas-Guadalupe 1990–2004 . . . . .	137
Guadalupe Margarita González HERNÁNDEZ, José Roberto González HERNÁNDEZ
10. Destitution in India . . . . .	157
Barbara HARRISS-WHITE
11. Poverty Alleviation and the Politics of Redistributive Land Reform in Southern Africa – an Essay . . . . .	171
Birgit ENGLERT
12. Opportunities and Capabilities. Poverty and Conflicts . . . . .	185
Clemens SEDMAK
III.Challenges for Europe . . . . .	197
13. Female Poverty in the European Union: Myth or Reality?. . . . .	199
Karin HEITZMANN
14. Is European Aid Focused on the Poorest Countries? . . . . .	209
Bob BAULCH
15. “Poverty Alleviation” as a step towards social inclusion. . . . .	225
Martin KRONAUER
16. Disempowerment? From regulating the poor to activating welfare	237
Eva NADAI
17. “I stay at home because it is easier for me to get out among people”. Gender arrangements in working poor family households	251
Elisa STREULI

V. Empowerment and Institutions . . . . .	263
18. What did Mr. Wolfensohn mean (intend) when he spoke of (about) poverty? . . . . .	265
Walter SCHICHO
19. Bible, Empowerment and Institution: The role of the Bible in the discourse of poverty . . . . .	281
Judith M. LIEU
20. Poverty and Access to Legal Institutions. The Challenge of Disqualification . . . . .	289
Andreas Th. MÜLLER
21. The Relationships between Institutions, Growth and Poverty in Developing Countries: A Theoretical Approach . . . . .	303
Alice SINDZINGRE	