

Contents

Raj Kollmorgen/Anke Bartels/Agata Stopińska Revolution after the End of History: An Introduction	9
Beyond Disciplinary Borders: Reframing Agency, Subversion and Democracy
Gerald Raunig Revolutionary Machines: Art and the Molecular Revolution	37
Benjamin Herborth & Oliver Kessler Revolution and Democracy: On the Historical Semantics of Political Change	51
Daniel Loick Let It Be: Towards a Post-Sovereign Concept of Revolution	63
Bertel Nygaard Revolutions and World History: A Long View	77
Fetih Açikel 'Models of Revolution' and 'Institutional Reproduction': How Revolutionary Elites Contribute to Institutional Model- Dependence in the World-System	91
Anil K. Jain Anchors of Resistance: The Reagent of Discomfort	105
Christoph Spehr Doing Change: What Does "Revolution" Mean Today?	115
Steven Corcoran The Subject of Revolution: Marxism, Badiou, Antagonism	129

Revolutionary Movements Today: Revisiting Forms of Resistance

André Mommen

The Ongoing Populist Revolution in Latin America 147

Philipp Casula

Interpreting the 'Democratic Revolutions':
Culture, Hegemony, Discourse 161

Jurij Halajko

Genesis and Aesthetics of the Ukrainian Orange Revolution 177

Marta Zimniak-Halajko

Invisible Revolutions: Revolutionary Concepts of New Social Movements of Right and Left in Contemporary Poland 189

Abdelilah Bouasria

Is Sufism a Revolutionary Discourse in Morocco?
A Comparative Case Study of the Boutshishiyya Sufi Order and Abdesslam Yassine's Islamic Movement 201

Holger Rossow

Unlikely Heirs: New Labour and the 'Thatcher Revolution' 219

Revolutionary Aesthetics:
Revising Public and Private Perceptions

Gene Ray

On the Conditions of Anti-Capitalist Art:
Radical Cultural Practices and the Capitalist Art System 239

Ulf Schulenberg

From Conceptual Revolutions to the Privacy of Mourning:
Barthes, Proust, and the "désir d'écrire" 253

Viola Brisolin

Displacement and Incessant Subversion:
Critical Ideas and Practices in the Late Barthes and Pasolini 267

Anja Meyerrose
The Fashion Revolution?
Transformation of Men's Clothing in Germany's '1968'	285
Steffen Hantke
The Imagery of Revolution in Recent Blockbuster Films	297
Contributors	307