

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION.....	8
I. Transpersonal Approaches to Conflict Transformation:.....
An Introduction into Systems Thinking.....	13
I.1 Conflict Transformation.....	14
I.2 Nietzsche's Dionysus: An archetypal principle of human existence	18
I.2.1 Tracing the roots: Nietzsche and Schopenhauer.....	19
I.2.2 The Dionysian World View.....	20
I.2.3 Dionysian Ecstasy as Healing and Unity.....	27
I.2.4 Honoring Both Gods in Kind.....	29
I.2.5 Nietzsche and Freud - an Alliance against Reason.....	31
I.3 C.G. Jung's concept of the Collective Unconscious.....	35
I.4 Systems Philosophy: an Interconnected Humanity.....	41
I.4.1 99 and 1 Monkey.....	42
I.4.2 The World as an Interconnected System.....	47
I.4.3 The human organism as a system based on cooperation.....	52
I.4.3.1 "Die stärkste und beste Droge für den Menschen ist der andere Mensch".....	55
I.4.3.2 The role of aggression.....	56
I.4.3.3 Preconditions for a successful relationship.....	57
I.5 Cultures of Peace(s). Partnership versus Dominance.....	59
I.5.1 The Time of the Great Mother.....	60
I.5.1.1 The Crete Phenomenon.....	62
I.5.1.2 System stability and system change.....	63
I.5.1.3 The hierarchic holdback.....	65
I.5.2 A History of Peace?.....	66
I.5.3 Partnership.....	69

II. NICARAGUA - A CASE STUDY ON REVOLUTION	71
Household Earth and Principle Hope	71
II.2 The Nicaraguán Revolution as a Dionysian Ritual	73
II.2.1 Myths and Archetypes	75
II.2.1.1 The Fallen Hero (A fairy tale)	78
II.2.1.2 Motherhood.....	81
II.2.2 Ecstasy and Chaos	86
II.2.3 Creativity	90
II.2.4 Equality	93
II.3 The "New Nicaragua" as a Transrational System	96
II.3.1 How did the System work?	96
II.3.2 Why did the System collapse? A Feminist Interpretation.	98
II.2.2.1 "Quién te quiere, te aporrea."The Role of Machismo.....	104
II.3.2.2 Promiscuity	110
II.3.3 The Aftermath: Emerging Consciousness	115
II.3.4 A different vision.....	117
II.4 Idealization.....	119
THE DREAM ALIVE.....	127
BIBLIOGRAPHY	132