

Contents

Foreword
György Széll, Werner Kamppeter &amp; Woosik Moon	9
Welcoming addresses	11
1 The SNU-KIEP EU Center Cae-One Kim	13
2 The European Union Brian McDonald	17
Introduction	23
3 EU and ASEAN – What lessons from EU social policy could be learned? Philippe Pochet	25
Social policies of the and in the European Union	39
4 Social Europe facing globalization – Assets and challenges for the ‘European Social Model’ Janine Goetschy	41
5 Enlargement – A danger for the European Social Model or an opportunity? Béla Galgoczi	59
6 Lessons of European integration – A historical perspective Werner Kamppeter	77
7 The social culture – Pillar and glue of the European society Dirk Jarré	95

Social policies in East Asia

- 8 Corporate Social Responsibility in North-East Asia –
convergences and divergences
György Széll
- 9 Globalization and social challenges – The case of Korea
Woosik Moon
- 10 The development of the welfare regime in South Korea
Kwang-Yeong Shin
- 11 Formal organization and village as two units of
DPRK society building
Eun-Jin Lee
- 12 Selection of a social policy for the Chinese central government – Conditions and limitations
Deshan Lin
- 13 Does a progressive income tax leads China to become a Welfare State?
Liguang Yang & György Széll
- 14 Trade unions and income regulation system in China
Liguang Yang & György Széll
- 15 Two interpretations of the Japanese information society –
The Japanese information society at a crossroad
Shujro Yazawa
- 16 ‘Confucian Culture’ and Social Democracy in East Asia
Eun-Jeung Lee
- 17 Supranational identity and the appresentation to fact and ‘factum’ of history
Helmut Loiskandl

Conclusions	287
18 European integration and East Asia – Learning from each other towards Omnilateralism Wolfgang Pape	289
The authors	301