

Table of Contents

List of Figures and Tables	11
List of Abbreviations and Acronyms	13
List of Annexes	16
1 Introduction	17
1.1 Relevance: The impact of EU agents on the Union's civil-military crisis management policy	17
1.2 State of research: The double lack of concepts	20
1.3 Research design: Aims, hypotheses and proceeding	22
1.4 Methodology	23
2 Analytical framework	26
2.1 Vertical control: Conceptualising principal-agent relationships in EU crisis management	26
2.1.1 A functional understanding of delegation	28
2.1.2 The collective principal	31
2.1.3 The unitary-actor assumption and agent preferences	34
The unitary-actor assumption	35
Two distinct sets of organisational preferences	36
2.1.4 Oversight procedures and agent autonomy	38
Monitoring	39
Sanctioning	41
2.2 Horizontal control: Conceptualising agent-agent relationships in EU crisis management	43
2.3 Agent functions in EU crisis management	46
2.3.1 Agenda management	47
The selection of crises	48
Three types of agenda-setting powers	50
2.3.2 Operational planning and management	51
2.3.3 External Representation	54
2.4 Operationalising vertical and horizontal control	55
3 Empirical part	64
3.1 EU crisis management: The institutional setting	64

3.1.1	Objectives	64
	The beginnings of EU crisis management	65
	The European Security Strategy	67
3.1.2	Actors and instruments	67
3.1.2.1	The Council machinery	69
	The collective principal I: The European Council	69
	The collective principal II: The main instances of the Council machinery	71
	The agent structure on the side of the Council General Secretariat	73
3.1.2.2	The European Community instruments	75
	The agent structure on the side of the European Commission	78
3.1.3	Procedures	80
3.1.3.1	EU crisis management: The policy cycle	81
	The principle of Civil-Military Co-ordination	82
3.1.3.2	Planning and decision-making procedures	86
	ESDP missions: The planning	86
	ESDP missions: The search for operational resources	89
	European Community crisis management and commitmentology procedures	91
	The Instrument for Stability	93
3.1.3.3	Implementation procedures	97
3.1.3.4	Reporting and evaluation procedures	101
3.2	The Council General Secretariat: Interests and preferences	103
3.2.1	The conceptual basis: Preferences	106
	The two EU concepts on security sector reform	107
3.2.2	The institutional set-up: Preferences	109
3.2.3	Specific crises and missions: Preferences	110
3.2.4	Interim conclusion and review of the unitary-actor assumption	111
3.3	The European Commission: Interests and preferences	112
3.3.1	The conceptual basis: Preferences	112
3.3.2	The institutional set-up: Preferences	115
3.3.3	Interim conclusion and review of the unitary-actor assumption	116
3.4	Case studies	117
3.4.1	Case study I: Delegation and agency in EU crisis management in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia (2001–2006)	119
3.4.1.1	FYROM-EU relations after the Ohrid Peace Agreement (2001)	119
3.4.1.2	The ESDP missions and the role of the EU Special Representative	123
	The EU military operation CONCORDIA (2003)	123
	The EU police mission PROXIMA (2003–2005)	126
	Overhauling PROXIMA (2004)	127

	The EU Police Advisory Team (EUPAT) (December 2005–June 2006) and the establishment of the double-hatted EUSR/Head of Delegation	131
3.4.1.3	The European Community assistance	133
	The European Commission Justice and Home Affairs Team (ECJHAT) (2002–2003)	134
	The European Commission Police Reform Project (ECPRP) (June 2004–September 2005)	136
	The Twinning Project in the Ministry of Interior (2005–2007) and the European Commission Field Monitoring Project (since 2006)	137
3.4.1.4	Interim conclusion	138
3.4.2	Case study II: Delegation and agency in EU crisis management in Bosnia and Herzegovina (2003–2008)	140
3.4.2.1	BiH-EU relations after the Dayton Peace Agreement (1995)	140
	The Dayton Agreement: Creating peace by fostering ethnic divisions	141
	The EU and the long way to a Stabilisation and Association Agreement with BiH	142
3.4.2.2	The ESDP missions and the role of the High Representative/EU Special Representative	144
	The establishment of the EU Police Mission (EUPM) in 2003	145
	The three guiding principles for police reform in BiH	146
	The institutional set-up of EU crisis management: The case of non-pooling in BiH	148
	The establishment of the EU military operation EUFOR ALTHEA in 2004 and the fight against organised crime	149
3.4.2.3	The European Community assistance	151
3.4.2.4	Interim conclusion	153
4	Evaluation: Agency in EU crisis management	155
4.1	The level of delegated authority in EU crisis management	155
4.1.1	The Council General Secretariat	155
	Agenda management	156
	Operational planning and management	157
	External representation	158
	Overall assessment on the level of delegated authority	158
4.1.2	The European Commission	158
	Agenda management	160
	Operational planning and management	160

External representation	160
Overall assessment on the level of delegated authority	161
4.2 Vertical and horizontal control: Testing the hypotheses	161
4.2.1 Vertical control	161
The Council General Secretariat	162
The European Commission	163
4.2.2 Horizontal control	164
5 Conclusion	166
Annexes	169
Bibliography	175