

Contents

Taco Brandsen, Paul Dekker and Adalbert Evers Civicness in the governance and delivery of social services	9
Paul Dekker Civicness: from civil society to civic services?	19
Adalbert Evers Civicness, civility and their meanings for social services	41
Taco Brandsen Civicness in organizations: a reflection on the relationship between professionals and managers	67
Evelien Tonkens Civicness and citizen participation in social services: conditions for promoting respect and public concern	83
Victor Pestoff Civicness and the co-production of social services in Sweden	99
Kai Leichsenring Introducing civicness in steering and managing social services. Cases from long-term care	113
Ota de Leonardis Organization matters: contracting for service provision and civicness	125
Stéphane Nassaut and Marthe Nyssens Civicness and service governance: the case of the Belgian quasi-market in the field of proximity services	153

Håkon Lorentzen Civicness and ownership. Volunteer Centers between state and civil society	181
Michaela Neumayr and Michael Meyer In search of civicness: an empirical investigation of service delivery, public advocacy, and community building by civil society organizations	201
Silvia Ferreira Researching civicness contexts and conditions: the case of the Portuguese welfare mix in social services	227
Bernard Enjolras Between market and civic governance regimes: civicness in the governance of social services in Europe	249
Janet Newman Civicness and the paradoxes of contemporary governance	273
Index	285
Authors	289