

Contents

Acknowledgments	9
1 Ethnic Cleansing: Theoretical Issues and Concerns and New Interpretation	11
1.1. Ethnic Cleansing: Definitions and Approaches	13
1.1.1. Alternative Approach: Ethnic Cleansing as Function of State-building and State-Consolidation Policies	16
1.2. Basic Concepts and Theoretical Framework	20
1.2.1. Nationalism as a Form of Politics	22
1.2.2. Nationalism Meets Contention	26
1.2.3. Contention into Violence	30
1.3. Ethnic Cleansing as Policy: Yugoslavia into a Common Serb State	31
1.4. Historical Background: Yugoslav Crisis and Serb Agenda	34
1.5. Sources and Outline	38
1.6. Conclusion: From Conflict to Cleansing – The Thin Red Line	40
2. Historical Background: Evolution of Serb Politics – From the State of Serbia to the single Serb State	42
2.1. Failure of the 1974 Constitution and Serbian Response	45
2.1.1. Kosovo: Yugoslav Failure and Serbian Challenges	49
2.2. Kosovo: Symbolical Value, Political Relevance and the Serb Movement	52
2.2.1. Intelligentsia Responds	59
2.2.2. Co-optation of the Movement: The Party Shows the Way	64
2.3. Movement Expansion and the Emergence of the State-building Project	71
2.4. Conclusion: State as Key Aspiration of the Serb Nationalist Movement	74
3. The Frame for the Picture of Ethnic Cleansing: Common Agenda, State and Policy	76
3.1. Serb Politics in the Nineteen-nineties: from Yugoslavia to Serbia	78
3.1.1. Yugoslavia into Serbia	84
3.1.2. The Three Serb States	90

3.2. Conceptualization of Ethnic Cleansing as Policy of State-building	96
3.2.1. Ordinary People and Extraordinary Crimes	101
3.3. Conclusion: Ethnic cleansing – the policy of choice of Serb leadership	102
4. Ethnic Cleansing: Practice and its Constitutive Elements	104
4.1. Deportation/Resettlement – differentia specifica of Ethnic Cleansing	110
4.2. From Domination to Deportation: the History of Sickness	112
4.2.1. Establishing Political Domination	112
4.2.2. Marginalizing the Other	120
4.2.3. Heavenly Choice: Economic Ruin or Death	123
4.3. The Final Stage: Round-up and Deportation	125
4.3.1. Croatia	126
4.3.2. Bosnia and Herzegovina	127
4.3.3. Kosovo	129
4.4. Conclusion: Political, Economic and Military Domination – Point of Departure for Ethnic Cleansing	130
5. Murder as Part of Ethnic Cleansing – Attack on Co-existence, Past and Future	132
5.1. Murder of Opportunity: Vae victis	134
5.2. Terrorizing Behavior Pattern: Kill ‘em All	138
5.2.1. Murder They Wrote	142
5.3. Crossing the Boundary: Ethnic Cleansing Crossing Over into Genocide	145
5.4. Conclusion: Murder for, in the Name of and by the State	148
6. Detention Camps and Practices in the Camps: Moral Attack on the Victims	151
6.1. The establishment of Camps: Apprehend, Select, Isolate	156
6.1.1. One State, One Camp-Network	160
6.2. Practices in Camps	163
6.2.1. General conditions	164
6.2.2. Torture	165
6.2.3. Sexual Abuse and Capos	170
6.3. Killings	172
6.4. Conclusion: Detention Camps – A Crippling Blow to the Victims’ Moral and Physical Well-being	175

7.	Concealment and Destruction of Evidence: Destroying the Past	177
7.1.	Killing the Dead: Mass Graves, Burials and Reburials	179
7.1.1.	Srebrenica – Concealment and Destruction as Military Operation	180
7.1.2.	Kosovo – Asanacija as Reason d’État	185
7.3.	Destruction of Documents, Revisionism and Denial	192
7.4.	Conclusion: Final Piece of the Puzzle	197
8.	Bringing Ethnic Cleansing Home: Crisis Staff – Key Agent of Destruction	198
8.1.	Crisis Staffs: Legal and Political Background	202
8.2.	Crisis Staffs: Mandate and Powers	209
8.3.	Crisis Staffs in Power: Complete Control of All Aspects of Life	215
8.4.	Crisis Staffs and Ethnic Cleansing	219
8.5.	Conclusion: Crisis Staffs - Deadly Fusion of State and Society	227
9.	Ordinary Serbs’ Complicity in Ethnic Cleansing: No Ordinary Crime	229
9.1.	The Starting Point: Political Support	233
9.2.	The Growing Gap: Cultivating Difference to the Point of Escalation	237
9.3.	From Differing to Profiting: Serbs Take Advantage of Ethnic Cleansing	244
9.4.	The Importance of the Local Community in Ethnic Cleansing: Degrees of Responsibility	248
9.5.	Complicity and Responsibility	253
9.6.	Conclusion: Ordinary Peoples’ Participation in Violence – Betrayal on a Large Scale	257
10.	Ethnic Cleansing in Retrospect and Some Conclusions	259
	Epilogue	267
	Bibliography	269