

Table of Content

Acknowledgements	6
------------------------	---

Foreword

Elisabeth Pott	7
-----------------------------	---

Gender, Health and European Cultures.

An Introduction

Walburga Freitag, Vera Lasch, & Ute Sonntag	9
--	---

Understanding and Networking within a New Europe

Intercultural Work and Communication – Challenges for the New Europe

Gabriele Kreutzner	17
---------------------------------	----

Listening to the “Other” in Transcultural Therapies. Worldviews, Idiomatic Expressions of Illness and the Use of Cultural Representations in Intercultural Communication

Gesine Sturm	34
---------------------------	----

Gender and Health: Internet and Network Activities

Vera Lasch	42
-------------------------	----

Meeting EU-Conference Participants Interests with the “Open Space” Method – Some Reflection on Process and Results

Walburga Freitag	65
-------------------------------	----

Identifying and Applying Gender Aspects in Health

Gender-Based Analysis: Concepts and Importance

Judith Fuchs & Birgit Babitsch 85

A Healthy Balance: Applied Research on Women's Paid Work and Unpaid Caregiving in Nova Scotia, Canada

Brigitte Neumann 97

Database Women's Health and Health Promotion as a Means to Understanding and Networking

Birgit Heidtke 119

Gender-relevant Issues and Debates

Neo-liberal Challenges for the Health: Gender Sensitive Reflections on GATS and the EU-Directive on Services

Arnd Hofmeister 127

Violence Against Women – A Public Health Concern and a Pandemic Human Rights Violation

Verena Kaselitz 139

“Our Bodies, Ourselves” – A Polish Edition as a Way to Reclaim Women's Bodies and Promote Choice In Poland?

Malgorzata Tarasiewicz 150

Facts and Figures on Gender and Health in the New Europe

Gender in the Field of Public Health – Implications for Policy

Peggy Maguire 161

Women's Health in Hungary

Csilla Csoboth 177

Cultural Determinants of Social Position and Health Status of Older Women in Poland

Beata Tobiasz-Adamczyk 193

Current Perspectives in Women's Reproductive Health Care in Slovenia

Irena Kirar Fazarinc & Dunja Obersnel Kveder 210

The Glasgow Women's Health Policy – A Model for Local Strategies

Monika Scheffler 218

Notes on Contributors 235