

Inhalt

| | |
|---|----|
| Stephen Gill Preface: Political Protest in the Age of Neoliberal Austerity | 7 |
| Peter Ullrich, Andrea Pabst, and Florian Heßdörfer Introduction: Prevent and Tame. Ideas for a New Perspective on Social Movements and Protest | 11 |
| Peter Ullrich Preventionism and Obstacles for Protest in Neoliberalism. Linking Governmentality Studies and Protest Research | 14 |
| Florian Heßdörfer Anti-Social or Childish: Protest and Youth under the Eye of Prevention | 24 |
| Marco Tullney Organizing Employees Under Surveillance: My Boss is Spying on Me, So I Better Keep My Mouth Shut | 35 |
| Andrej Holm and Anne Roth Anti-Terror Investigations against Social Movements— A Personal Experience of a Preventive Threat | 49 |
| Michael Shane Boyle The Criminalization of Dissent: Protest Violence, Activist Performance, and the Curious Case of the VolxTheaterKarawane in Genoa | 55 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Darcy K. Leach and Sebastian Haunss »Wichtig ist der Widerstand«: Rituals of Taming and Tolerance in Movement Responses to the Violence Question | 73 |
| Nick Montgomery Beyond Civil Disobedience and Counter-hegemony: Legitimacy, Strategy and Tactics in the 2010 Anti-Olympics Movement | 99 |
| The Authors | 119 |