

Contents

Introduction: Whose Security? Christoph Schuck	7
--	---

Part I A Conceptual Debate on Security

Human Security: The Evolution of a Concept and its Doctrinal as well as Institutional Manifestations Manuel Fröhlich and Jan Lemanski	21
The Concept of Human Security Revisited: Theoretical and Empirical Problems of a Post-Cold War Security Approach Christoph Schuck	51
The Dangers of Securitization: Facts, Risks, and the Unknown Unknowns Mark Arenhövel	81
Old versus New Security: A Contribution to the Conceptual Debate Reimund Seidelmann	103
Human Securitization: State Theory, Governmentality, and the Ambivalence of Security in Europe Andreas Vasilache	123
Security Thinking in Asia: A Lukewarm Exercise Beyond the Traditionalist View Bob Sugeng Hadiwinata	153

Part II Aspects of Human Security

Security and Democracy: Democracy through War? Wolfgang Merkel	181
--	-----

Security and the Environment: What Is at Stake? Astrid Carrapatoso	211
Security and Gender: Feminist Approaches to the Concept of Security Claudia Derichs and Daniel Pinéu	233
Security and the Welfare State Thomas Meyer	261

Part III
Beyond Human Security: Aspects of Regional Security –
Examples from Asia and Africa

Civilian Control, the Military, and the Democracy in East Asia: A New Conceptual Approach and its Empirical Application Aurel Croissant and David Kühn	277
East Asia and the U.S.: The Dawn of a New Security Architecture? Jörn Dosch	305
The Stability of Instability: State, Security, and Violent Conflicts in South Asia Conrad Schetter and Janosch Prinz	327
Security in the Arab-Persian Gulf Region: An Exercise of Classical Security Matthias Heise	355
Security in Africa: A Fatal Contradiction? The Role of International Organizations in Regional Conflicts Olaf Leiß	387
Contributors	411