

Contents

Introduction
Kolja Raube and Annika Sattler	9
1. Analytical Model
The Concept of Difference
Christine Landfried	15
2. Difference and Democracy
The Future of Democracy
Manfred G. Schmidt	49
Comment: An Alternative View on Democratic Governance Beyond the Nation-State
Jonathan P. Aus	67
Comment: Difference and Democracy from the Constitutional Law Perspective
Alexander von Brünneck	77
Comment: The Sustainability of Democracy— An Examination on the Basis of Leading Differences
Tine Stein	83
3. Difference and Europe
Towards a Reflexive External Governance of the European Union
Kolja Raube	101

Comment: The Concept of Difference and its Potential for Research in Political Science Ingrid Schneider	127
Comment: Small States and Differences in the European Union— Putting Forward or Paralyzing the Integration? Meinhard Hilf	141
Comment: Reflections on the Concept of a Reflexive European Union External Governance Chiara Formenti-Ujlaki	147
 4. Difference and Globalization
Thinking Islamic Difference in Pluralistic Democracies Niliifer Göle	159
Comment: The New Cosmopolitanism. The (Right) Way to Cope with Difference in a Globalizing Society Edgar Grande	183
Comment: The Troubles with Standardization of Cultural Differences Rainer Tetzlaff	197
Comment: Different Potentials of Difference in the Balkans— A Paradigmatic Analysis Fran Kauzlaric	211
 5. Difference and Law
Managing Difference: Constitutional Pluralism and Transnational Rights Protection Alec Stone Sweet	227
Comment: Contesting the Management of Difference— Transnational Human Rights, Religion and the European Court of Human Rights' Lautsi Decision Mattias Kumm	245

Comment: Global Constitutionalism and the Concept of Difference Antje Wiener	261
---	-----

Comment: Law, Difference and Transnational Norm Building Under a Shared Watercourse Treaty—The International Court of Justice and Environmental Impact Statements Jennifer McKay	277
--	-----

6. Difference and Public Sphere

Difference as Basic Component of Mediated Communication in (European) Public Spheres Irene Neverla	291
---	-----

Comment: Public Spheres in Europe Hartmut Kaelble	307
---	-----

Comment: Difference as Structural Characteristic and Catalyst of European Public Spheres Annika Sattler	315
--	-----

Comment: Belonging and Engagement—Benefits of Difference on European Union Issues in Europe's Public Spheres Pieter de Wilde	327
---	-----

7. Difference and Art

Difference and Democracy: Art Martin Warnke	341
---	-----

Comment: Difference Between Democracy and Art Beyond Visual Arts Udo Bernbach	355
--	-----

Comment: Art is Difference... Even if this is no Longer Readily Perceptible Petra Kipphoff von Huene	361
---	-----

Comment: Difference and Indifference Between Art Avant-Gardes and Democratic Politics Klaus von Beyme	369
--	-----

8. Conclusion

Exploring Potentials of Difference in Europe and Beyond

Kolja Raube and Annika Sattler.....379

Contributing Authors.....389

Index.....395