

CONTENTS

Foreword	i
Preface	iii
Preface to the 1 st edition	v
Thanks	vii
Graphs and Tables	V
List of Acronyms	IX
CHAPTER I
Prolegomena	1
1. Preliminary Note and Introduction	1
2. Main Research Question and Methodological Approach	3
3. Literature Review	6
4. Overall Orientation – Fateful Policy Decisions or Revisiting Crucial Junctures and Bifurcations	8
CHAPTER II
A History of Afghan Education—Reflections of Contending Ideologies	17
1. 1901–1978: The Slow and Difficult Expansion	17
2. 1978–1992: Failed Universalization	47
3. 1992–1995: Civil War—Wasted Years and Opportunities	64
4. 1995–2001: The Taliban Years—Clamp-Down on Female Education	68
CHAPTER III
Under The New Regime	83
1. 2002–2004: Postemergency Surge	83
(A) Findings Based on the RALS Data Set	88
(B) NRVA/MICS (2003 Data)	91

2.	2005 and Beyond: From an Attempt to Phase Into Quality as Lead Paradigm to the Reemerged Emergency	100
3.	Contextual Critique of the Official Educational Development Strategy	137
CHAPTER IV
	Afghan Social Tectonics	155
1.	Addressing the Gender Gap	155
1. 1	Norms, Cultural Traditions, and Values—Current Challenges and Implications for Female Education.	155
1. 2	The Preservation of Namus and Purdah – Visions and Images of Female Dignity and Honor	171
1. 3	Learning From Past Failures – Female Education and the State	182
2.	Building or Reconstructing Nation and State?—Deconstructing the Concepts of Afghan Nation, Statehood, and Legitimacy	188
2. 1	Failed State or State Without People?—Defining the Challenges	188
2. 2	An Afghan Unified Nation—Myth or Reality?	190
2. 3	Resistance Against the State and the State As War Booty.	194
3.	Dissecting the Scourge of Corruption—Reflecting Levels of (In-)Capacity and Manipulation	199
3. 1	Taxonomy of Underlying Motives, Traditions, and Inherent Logics.	199
3. 2	Decadent Rulers in the Citadel?—Turf Battles and Rivalries Between International Agencies	205
3. 3	The Dangers of Unreflected, Voluntaristic, Accelerated “Afghanization”	216
3. 4	Navigating Between Tangible Output, Quality, and Informal Censure.	219
3. 5	Ritualized M&E—When More Is Less and Less Would Be More	222
	Epilogue	225
	Annotations	227

Bibliography	303
I. Monographs (including Pamphlets and Contributions to Collective Volumes or Essays and Short Studies (Re-)Printed in Monographs)	303
II. Articles in Scientific Journals	306
III. Grey Literature	307
(A) Technical Semiofficial and In-House Studies and Policy Documents	307
(B) Policy Brochures	310
(C) Think Tank Studies and Research Papers (Technical/Policy: Commissioned and Noncommissioned) .	310
IV. Newspaper and News Magazine Articles)	311
V. Internet Web Sites	311
Index	313