Table of Contents

Introduction ................................................................. 11
  Roberto Castaldi

The Invention of Federalism .................................................. 15
  Lucio Levi

Thoughts on the American and French Revolutions.
A Broad View .................................................................. 43
  Gottfried Dietze †

Alexander Hamilton and Immanuel Kant.
A Comparison of Two Federalisms ...................................... 59
  Massimo Mori

The Scope and Limits of the Political.
Hamilton and Kant .......................................................... 71
  Murray Forsyth

Peace as a Condition for Democracy ................................. 91
  Sergio Pistone

Democratic Peace and Federalist Peace Theories.
Allies or Enemies? ............................................................ 113
  Ira Straus

The Relations between International and Domestic Politics ...... 237
  Roberto Castaldi

The Complementarity of the Thinking of Kant and Hamilton in the United States ..................................... 253
  Joseph Preston Baratta

The “Invention” of Complementarity of the Federalist thought of Kant and Hamilton in Italy ............................. 271
  Corrado Malandrino

Index .................................................................................. 303