

Contents

Foreword	7
List of Tables, Figures and Maps	9
Elisabeth Bakke and Ingo Peters
Introduction: The 1989 'Revolutions' and Their Effects 20 Years down the Road	11
Claus Offe
The Politics and Economics of Post-Socialist Capitalism in Central East Europe	25
Øyvind Østerud
Regime Transition and Varieties of Post-Communism	45
Wolfgang Merkel
Plausible Theory, Unexpected Result: The Rapid Democratic Consolidation in Central and Eastern Europe	57
Karin Hilmer Pedersen and Lars Johannsen
Democratic Consolidation – A Matter of Shared Values. The Case of Bulgaria	77
Jonas Linde and Joakim Ekman
Patterns of Stability and Performance in Post-Communist Hybrid Regimes	97
Andreas Rödder
Germany: Revolution and Unification	121
Hermann Smith-Sivertsen
The Dissolution of the Soviet Union: Agency, Performance or Legitimacy?	141

Contents

Jan Rychlík

The 'Velvet Divorce' of Czechoslovakia, 1989–1992 159

Svein Mønnesland

The Fall of Communism and the Dissolution of Yugoslavia 179

Gert-Joachim Glaeßner

Continuity and Change: The German Party System after 1989 203

Elisabeth Bakke

The Czech Party System 20 Years after the Velvet Revolution 221

Nick Sitter

Absolute Power? Hungary Twenty Years after the Fall of Communism 249

Jørn Holm-Hansen

Continuity and Change in Polish Party Politics since 1989 269

Ingo Peters

The Fall of the Wall – Re-emergence of the German Question?
The Case of Germany's Policy towards Poland after Unification 287

Arnd Bauerkämper

Historical Legacies or Ruptures in Transformation? The Weakness of Democratic Attitudes in Eastern Germany after 1990 315

List of Contributors

335