

Table of Contents

Preface and Acknowledgement	5
List of Contributors	11
List of Abbreviations	15
Introduction to the Research Agenda
The Changing Role of Law in the Age of Supranational and Transnational Governance Rainer Nickel & Andrea Greppi	17
Part I: Democratic Rule and the Challenge of Governance and Soft Law
Chapter 1
But When in Doubt – Send the Marines: Revolution and Evolution of Cosmopolitan Constitutionalism Hauke Brunkhorst	33
Chapter 2
International, Transnational, and Global Law: Which Democratic Rules beyond the State? Raffaele Marchetti	69
Chapter 3
Making Democracy Global: Three Problems and a Modest Proposal Juan Carlos Bayón Mohino	85
Chapter 4
Global Law: The Human Face of International Law Alicia Cebada Romero	101

Table of Contents

Part II: European Governance as avant-garde and Empire vs. the Social

Chapter 5

- Unity in Diversity as Europe's Vocation and Conflicts Law as Europe's Constitutional Form
Christian Joerges 127

Chapter 6

- Theorising Conflicts and Politicisation in the EU
Patricia Mindus 179

Chapter 7

- Procedure and Substance in Postnational Constitutionalism: Montesquieu or Sieyes?
Andrea Greppi 195

Chapter 8

- United They Diverge? From Conflicts to Constitutional Theory? Critical Remarks on Joerges' Theory of Conflicts of Law
Agustín José Menéndez 211

Part III: Accountability and Responsiveness of Administrative Governance Structures in the EU and Beyond: Is there a Role for Civil Society in EU Governance?

Chapter 9

- European Union Executive Power in a Living Constitution
Deirdre Curtin 243

Chapter 10

- EU Administrative Accountability Post-Lisbon: A Constitutional Battle about Comitology and Delegated Legislation
Rainer Nickel 275

Chapter 11

- Echo Chamber. The European Parliament and Citizen Participation in The Public Policy Process
Agustín Ferraro 287

Chapter 12

Accountability and Responsiveness of Governance Structures in the EU and Beyond: Is there a Role for Civil Society in EU Governance?

Montserrat Abad Castelos

301

Chapter 13

Global and European Sport Governance: The Role of European Institutions and Sport Governing Bodies

Carmen Pérez González

319