

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements.....	5
Ingi Iusmen and Helen Stalford Introduction: The EU as a Children’s Rights Actor: Law, Policy and Structural Dimensions.....	9
Helen Stalford Journeys to European Justice: (How) Can the EU Enable Children to Enforce their Rights?	19
Mieke Schuurman Developing a Model for Mainstreaming Children’s Rights into EU Law and Policy-making	49
Ruth Lamont Central Authorities and the European Judicial Network: Mainstreaming Children’s Rights into Cross-border Cooperation in EU Family Law.....	77
Olivia Lind-Haldorsson and Rebecca O’Donnell The EU and Child Protection Systems: The Role and the Impact of the EU in Advancing Children’s Protection Rights	101
Stephanie Rap The Implementation of the Right to be Heard in Juvenile Justice Proceedings in Europe.....	133
Ingi Iusmen The EU and the De-Institutionalisation of Children	165
Eleanor Drywood “When we buy a young boy ...”: Migrant Footballers, Children’s Rights and the Case for EU Intervention.....	191
Joseph Savirimuthu Networked Children, Commercial Profiling and The EU Data Protection Reform Agenda: In the Child’s Best Interests?.....	221
Nuno Ferreira Child Labour and EU Law and Policy: A Regional Solution for a Global Issue	259

Wouter Vandenhole
Children's Rights-Based Approaches to EU Development Cooperation: A SWOT-Analysis	289
Helen Stalford and Ingi Iusmen
Conclusion: How Can the EU Be a Better Children's Rights Actor?	311
About the Authors.....	325
Index	329