

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Australia–Indonesia relations: How to stop the roller coaster? Jemma Purdey and Antje Missbach	1
Mapping current interactions	25
The mind gap: Australia–Indonesia relations Howard Dick	27
Evaluating the importance of Australia–Indonesia economic relations Budy P. Resosudarmo, Kiki Verico and Donny Pasaribu	47
Challenges in the people-to-people relationship	71
Grandstanding on Papua: Where people-to-people engagement is not encouraged Richard Chauvel	73
Australia’s international broadcasters and Indonesia: Fourth Estate versus ‘soft power’ Ross Tapsell	91
Education and cultural exchange	109
Investing in good will: Australia’s scholarships programs for Indonesian tertiary students, 1950s–2010 Jemma Purdey	111
Reciprocity and relationship building through education: The ACICIS Field Study Program in West Java Bob Sugeng Hadiwinata	133

Transforming Australian students' intercultural understanding	151
Alistair Welsh
Cross-cultural connections	171
The missing link: Cultural performance and intercultural hyphenated identities of Australian-Indonesian youth	173
Monika Winarnita and Danau Tanu
Creating connections between Indonesians and Australians through community-driven arts projects	197
Lily Yulianti Farid
'Women united will never be defeated!': An Australian puppeteer's experiences in Indonesia	215
Helen Pausacker with Antje Missbach
Australia–Indonesia intimate relationships: Intercultural couples, masculinity and cultural fluency	231
Monika Winarnita
Law and crime connections	249
'Outlaw's paradise': Australian outlaw bikers, pre-crime regimes and the appeal of Bali	251
Ian Wilson
Australian extradition requests for people smugglers from Indonesia: Few successes, many difficulties	269
Antje Missbach
Epilogue: The fate of Australia's Bali 9 duo	291
Jemma Purdey and Antje Missbach
Contributors	295