

Table of contents

Kim Christiaens, Magaly Rodríguez García and Idesbald Goddeeris A Global Perspective on the European Mobilization for Chile (1970s-1980s)	7
Thomas C. Wright Chilean Political Exile in Western Europe.....	47
Jan Eckel Allende's Shadow, Leftist Furor, and Human Rights: The Pinochet Dictatorship in International Politics	67
Kim Christiaens The Difficult Quest for Chilean Allies: International Labor Solidarity Campaigns for Chile in the 1970s and 1980s	93
Nuno Pereira Switzerland: A Second Wave or the Decline of the '68 Movement?	125
Shirin Hirsch The United Kingdom: Competing Conceptions of Internationalism.....	145
Georg Dufner West Germany: Professions of Political Faith, the Solidarity Movement and New Left Imaginaries.....	163
Nicolas Prognon France: Welcoming Chilean Exiles, a Mark of the Resonance of the Unidad Popular in French Society?	187
Kim Christiaens Belgium: The Chilean Factor and the Changing Dimensions of Solidarity Activism.....	207
Monica Quirico and Valentine Lomellini Italy: The 'Chilean Lesson' between the Legacy of the Struggle against Fascism and the Threat of New Authoritarian Shifts.....	239
Linda Heinonen Finland: Popularizing Chile	257

Jadwiga E. Pieper Mooney

East Germany: Chilean Exile and the Politics of Solidarity in the Cold War..... 275

James Mark and Bálint Tolmár

Hungary: Connecting the 'Responsible Roads to Socialism'?

The Rise and Fall of a Culture of Chilean Solidarity, 1965-89 301

Yulia Gradska

The Soviet Union: 'Chile is in Our Hearts.' Practices of Solidarity between Propaganda, Curiosity, and Subversion 329

Contributors 347

Illustrations 351

Abbreviations 353