

Table of Contents

Preface.....	9
Introduction. Contesting the Arctic.....	11
Keith Battarbee and John Erik Fossum

PART ONE

TERRITORY AND POLITICS IN THE ARCTIC

Contesting the Arctic. Territory and Politics.....	39
Keith Battarbee and John Erik Fossum
Responding to Change in the North. Comparing Recent Canadian and American Foreign Policies in the Arctic.....	49
Douglas C. Nord
Asia as a Complicating Factor in Canada-US Northern Diplomacy	69
David G. Haglund and Joseph T. Jockel
A Canadian Dire Strait. The Northwest Passage from a Legalist Perspective.....	89
John Kennair
Cold Peace. Arctic Cooperation and Canadian Foreign Policy	107
Michael Byers
Breaking the Ice. The European Union and the Arctic	121
Steffen Weber and Iulian Romanyshyn
The Other Sovereignities. Québec and the Arctic	133
Stéphane Roussel and Jean-François Payette

PART TWO

INDIGENOUS PERSPECTIVES IN THE ARCTIC

Living in the Arctic. Indigenous Perspectives and Issues.....	151
Keith Battarbee and John Erik Fossum

Inuit in Canada	167
Donna Patrick
Canadian Inuit. Where we have been and where we are going	177
Mary Simon
The Promises of Consultations?	191
Else Grete Broderstad and Hans-Kristian Hernes
Aboriginal Title. Bounds and Parcels of Aboriginal Lands in Canada and Norway.....	217
Brian Ballantyne
Shifting Language Policy Priorities in Arctic North America. Pragmatism, Privilege, and Political Correctness.....	237
Keith Battarbee

PART THREE

REPRESENTATIONS AND EXPERIENCES OF THE ARCTIC

Experiencing the Arctic. Representations and Responses	263
Keith Battarbee and John Erik Fossum
“We Stand on Guard”. The “True North Strong and Free” War, the Arts, and the Canadian North	267
Sherrill Grace
“Stillness destroys them”. Northern Space and Movement in Rudy Wiebe’s Writing	285
Janne Korkka
North. Of Beauty, Of Love, and Of Stairways to Heaven	303
Aritha Van Herk	